1855-2005

To commemorate Michigan State University's sesquicentennial celebration, Spartan football players will wear the "S150" logo on the yoke (neckline) of their game jerseys.

PRESS BOX

The Spartan Stadium expansion project, completed in August 2005, included the construction of a new press box. Level 8 is the working press deck that features 193 seats and four radio broadcast booths. Level 6 is the television camera deck as well as the broadcast location for national and regional telecasts.

Admission to the press box is through Gate F on the west side of the stadium. All press personnel are subject to search prior to entering Spartan Stadium.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for Michigan State's 2005 home football games should be submitted online at www.msuspartans.com/fbcredentials.

Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis. All other credentials for print media are issued on basis of circulation. Upon acceptance of application, appropriate credentials are mailed out or held for pickup at media will-call, located at Gate F on the west side of Spartan Stadium. All members of the media picking up credentials at media will-call will be required to provide photo identification and the name must match the one listed on the credential. Working press tickets contain specific seat locations. Reporters requiring exclusive phone service should have their own lines and instruments installed. Others may use a limited number of telephones on a first-come, first-served basis.

PRO SCOUTS

As per Big Ten Conference regulations, Michigan State does not provide press box access or media credentials for professional scouts. However, scouts may purchase single-game tickets for Spartan home games through the MSU Football Office at (517) 355-1647.

ROAD GAME CREDENTIALS

Writers covering the Spartans on a regular basis may request media credentials for road games through the MSU Sports Information Office. Credential requests are submitted to opponent SIDs on Mondays two weeks prior to the game.

PHONE LINES

An adequate number of phone lines and phone instruments are available, but media members needing to order their own lines should contact Ameritech (800) 321-8152. Those ordering personal phones should provide Ameritech with the following street address for installation, One Michigan State University. To use existing lines, dial 8-0-area code-number. For toll free numbers, dial 8-1-800-number. Only collect, toll free and credit card calls are accepted.

RADIO

Each originating broadcasting station will be issued a maximum of eight booth credentials. Spotters' credentials must come from this allotment. Home team spotters are provided on advance notice only, and visiting team spotters must be arranged with visitors.

Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show receive consideration for credentials. A post-game report service will be available from a sports information staffer after each home game at no charge.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field passes are issued on the basis of circulation with priority granted to media agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Photographers may work from either sideline (except in the team area) and beyond both end zones. Press box photo passes for assigned locations are issued to television station crews. A maximum of three working tickets is allowed per TV station. With the return of natural grass in Spartan Stadium, field access is limited to still photographers, camera operators and sideline reporters for "live" radio/TV network coverage.

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee regarding sideline control, which ensure the sideline is a working press area. The following guidelines are adhered to:

1. Each photographer is required to wear an armband at all times.
2. Armbands must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup.
3. After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the limit line and sideline.
4. Cutline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the sideline armband area.
5. Tripods are not permitted in the sideline armband area.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking passes are available for $15 per game and $90 for the 2005 season (six home games). The designated lots for media parking are all within easy walking distance of Spartan Stadium. Media parking passes will be assigned by the MSU Sports Information Department. Priority for lot assignment will be given to daily newspapers and TV stations that cover Spartan football on a regular basis. All other media parking will be issued on the basis of circulation or market size (TV/radio). Additional parking fees are required to accommodate TV satellite trucks and "live" radio remotes.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Prior to kickoff, all media members will be provided a game program, updated game notes from both teams, a flip card and other pertinent information. Last-minute line-up changes, pregame weather conditions and other information will be relayed through the internal public address system. During the game, media members will be provided with a running play-by-play and quickie stats at the end of each quarter. Following the game, a complete post-game stats package will be available in the press box and will contain a scoring summary, final team statistics, final individual statistics, complete play-by-play, drive charts, defensive statistics, player participation list, post-game quotes from both head coaches and selected players plus post-game notes.

Game notes and quotes will be posted on Michigan State's official web site promptly after the conclusion of the game (www.msuspartans.com).

MEDIA HOSPITALITY

A complimentary pregame meal will be served on Level 6 (press box) and Level 8 (TV camera deck), beginning approximately two hours before kickoff and running through the conclusion of halftime. Complimentary coffee and soft drinks are available throughout the game. Additional food and refreshments will be sold throughout the game from the concession areas, located on Levels 6 and 8.

MSU ON THE INTERNET

Visit the official Michigan State Athletics home page on the Internet at www.msuspartans.com. The site offers up-to-date information on all of MSU's 25 varsity sports, including schedules and results, player and coach biographies as well as the latest news from the MSU athletics program. Links to the NCAA, the Big Ten Conference and the 10 other Big Ten schools also are provided.

HOTEL ROOMS

Hotel rooms are booked far in advance of Michigan State home football weekends. The Michigan State Sports Information Office has set aside a limited number of rooms at local hotels for accredited media representatives. Arrangements should be made through sports information office assistant Paulette Martis at (517) 355-2271. Some area hotels require a two-night stay for Michigan State home football weekends and a valid credit card is required for reservations being made through the MSU Sports Information Office. Media members are responsible for making their own lodging arrangements when Michigan State plays on the road.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

A weekly press conference with MSU head coach John L. Smith and selected players will be held each Monday during the season, beginning at 11:30 a.m. on Level 4 (Club) in Spartan Stadium. Parking is available in Lot 79 – the gated, pay lot – located south of Spartan Stadium, off of Shaw Lane.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

Outside the weekly press conference, interviews during the week with head coach John L. Smith or any Spartan players should be arranged through the MSU Sports Information Office. Smith's best time for interviews is between 11 a.m.-noon Eastern during the week. The MSU Sports Information Office requests that all player interviews be arranged through this department and that media members are prohibited from contacting players in their apartments or dormitory rooms. The best time for player interviews is following practice Tuesday at approximately 6 p.m. All player interviews should be completed by the conclusion of practice on Wednesday of game week. Please contact the MSU Sports Information Office for all player interview requests at least 24 hours in advance.

Media parking is available in Lot 79 – the gated, pay lot – located south of Spartan Stadium, off of Shaw Lane.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Media representatives may attend head coach John L. Smith's post-game press conference in the interview trailer, located outside the stadium tunnel entrance after a short post-game cooling-off period. All requested Spartan players also will be available for post-game comments in the interview trailer following Coach Smith's press conference. The Spartan locker room is closed to the media. Coach Smith's comments will be hooked into an amplification system and audio feeds can be obtained through use of connector cords (standard 1/4-inch connector). TV stations should bring a recording deck, standard BNC video cable and XLR audio cable. TV cameramen will be asked to set up their equipment at the back of the room. Coach Smith's post-game press conference can also be seen live on closed circuit in the press box. The visiting coach press conference, held in another trailer outside the tunnel, will be shown on a tape-delay basis following Coach Smith's press conference.

PRACTICE SCHEDULE

Tuesday practices are open to the working media for approximately 30 minutes, beginning at approximately 3:30 p.m. TV cameras and still photographers are permitted to shoot flex and the first few periods. The remainder of practice is closed.

To receive the weekly football release via electronic mail, members of the media can send an e-mail message to Associate Athletics Director John Lewandowski: lewand19@ath.msu.edu. For the fourth-consecutive season, the Spartan Radio Network (Holt, Mich.) will produce and distribute Michigan State football broadcasts on 37 affiliates throughout the state, with Lansing's WJIM Radio (AM/FM) serving as the flagship station.

George Blaha enters his 28th season as the play-by-play announcer for Michigan State football. Blaha, who resides in Troy, Mich., is in his 30th year as the voice of the National Basketball Association's Detroit Pistons, describing the action on both television and radio. He has been named Michigan Sports Broadcaster of the Year twice (1998 and 2002) by the National Association of Sportswriters and Sports Broadcasters. Born in Detroit, Blaha graduated from Notre Dame in 1966 with a degree in economics. While growing up in Marshalltown, Iowa, he and his father attended Michigan State's first-ever Big Ten football game, played at Iowa in 1953. His list of all-time favorite Spartans includes his radio broadcast partner, Sherm Lewis, and former quarterback Charlie Baggett.

Former Spartan All-American Sherm Lewis is in his first season as a member of the broadcast crew, serving as the color analyst. During his career as a halfback for Michigan State from 1961-63, Lewis helped the Spartans to a combined record of 18-8-1 (.685), including two Top 10 finishes in the United Press International Poll (No. 9 in 1961 and No. 10 in 1963). As a senior, he accounted for 1,189 all-purpose yards and eight touchdowns while finishing third in balloting for the 1963 Heisman Trophy. The Louisville, Ky., native led the team in receptions with 11 for 303 yards (27.5 avg.) and ranked second in rushing with 577 yards on 90 carries (6.4 avg.). Lewis rushed for 1,566 career yards and scored 23 career TDs. He played four seasons in professional football, including two years in Canada (1964-65) and two seasons with the National Football League's New York Jets (1966-67).

Lewis spent 14 years as an assistant coach at Michigan State (1969-82) before heading to the NFL ranks. He worked for 22 years as an assistant coach in the pros, including the last three seasons with the Detroit Lions, before announcing his retirement after the 2004 campaign.

Will Tieman returns for his sixth year on the Spartan football broadcast team. In addition to his duties as the sideline reporter, Tieman coordinates all of the radio network's post-game coverage from the locker room. For the 16th year, he serves as host for the syndicated series, "This Week in College Football." Tieman's other football-related activities include: hosting a daily statewide series, called "Coach Talk" featuring MSU head football coach John L. Smith, and handling play-by-play duties for the national broadcast of the Motor City Bowl.

Mike Kamin is in his third season as broadcast host for the Spartan Radio Network. Kamin previously served as producer and broadcast host for the Central Michigan Football Radio Network for five years. In addition, he serves as host of a daily statewide radio series that focuses on collegiate sports, entitled "The Michigan Sports Brief." A 1995 University of Illinois graduate and three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, Kamin competed as a member of the Illini's 1994 Big Ten championship track and field team.

SPARTAN SPORTS ON FSN DETROIT

Michigan State fans will have three different opportunities to catch Spartan athletics on FSN Detroit:

Spartan Sports Zone, a weekly 30-minute television show produced and distributed by the Michigan State Athletics Department, will air Sundays on FSN Detroit. The program will be replayed on Thursdays. The magazine-format show is dedicated to in-depth coverage of Michigan State's 25 varsity sports, including highlights and post-game coverage of Spartan football. The Pontiac Challenge Cup provides positive promotion and competition among the 23 common sports teams from both Michigan State and Michigan. These teams will compete during three traditional athletic seasons (fall, winter and spring) in head-to-head events. There are six sports categories per athletic season, each with one competition point at stake. The school earning the most points will be presented with the Cup at the conclusion of each season.

Check local listings for air times in your area.

For Michigan State, the outlook for the 2005 season is filled with optimism, as the Spartans welcome back 37 letterwinners and 14 starters from last year's squad that was at times a dominant team. The Spartans looked unstoppable during routs of No. 4 Wisconsin (49-14) and No. 19 Minnesota (51-17), but some close calls and bad breaks resulted in a 5-7 overall record. Four of MSU's losses came by a combined total of 23 points, with the largest margin during those four games being an eight-point loss that came in triple overtime.

"2004 was a season of missed opportunities," Michigan State head coach John L. Smith said. "It was disappointing to lose so many close games because we weren't mentally tough enough to finish. The players must become conditioned to making a play when the game is on the line."

Michigan State expects to once again feature one of the nation's top offenses, with this year's model being built around junior quarterback Drew Stanton, who accounted for 2,288 total yards and 14 touchdowns last season. Stanton is one of three returnees who rushed for better than 600 yards last season, joining Jason Teague and Jehuu Caulcrick, while five returning Spartans caught at least 20 passes last year. Three starters from an offensive line that helped MSU rank No. 10 in the nation in total offense (460.0 ypg.) while racking up a school single-season record 5,520 total yards.

"Offensively, the team made great strides during the spring," Smith said. "The passing game showed great promise, especially in terms of producing big plays. We lack a home-run threat at running back, but I really like the consistent production that we're getting from Jason Teague and Jehuu Caulcrick. The offensive line has shown steady improvement."

On the defensive side of the ball, the biggest challenge is identifying the playmakers. In 2004, the Spartans ranked near the bottom of the Big Ten in sacks (21) and takeaways (14). Two of the top three tacklers return in Eric Smith (115 tackles) and David Herron Jr. (95), but the loss of such stalwarts as Ronald Stanley (team-high 125 tackles) and Jason Harmon (105 tackles, team-high three interceptions) will surely be felt.

"Throughout the spring, the defense was susceptible to giving up the big play, so that's a problem," Smith said. "The first-team defense showed some promise, but depth remains a concern. We must keep applying the pressure on the second-teamers to improve."

As the John L. Smith era enters its third year, the Spartans are feeling more comfortable every day with his system. The progress made as players continue to learn and process information will surely pay dividends on the gridiron during Saturday's this fall.

"From a mental standpoint, this team is light years ahead of where it was a year ago," said Smith. "They're more familiar with the material, so they can execute with more confidence.

"If we can stay healthy, I know that we can be a decent football team. Health is one of our biggest concerns. We're definitely a better team than we were a year ago, but we must keep improving."

POSITION-BY-POSITION BREAKDOWN

Third-year head coach John L. Smith takes a position-by-position look at the 2005 Spartans.

QUARTERBACK

Drew Stanton (6-3, 222, Jr.) enters the 2005 campaign firmly entrenched as the Spartans' starting signal caller after a sophomore season that saw him earn honorable mention All-Big Ten honors despite playing only six full games. MSU's 2004 team MVP ranked among the Big Ten leaders in total offense (third at 228.8 yards per game), passing efficiency (fourth with a 131.8 rating), rushing (eighth at 68.7 ypg.) and passing (10th at 160.1 ypg.). His 2,288 total yards represent the fifth-best single-season mark in Spartan history. Stanton completed 141-of-22 throws (.641) for 1,601 yards, eight TDs and six interceptions. He also ranked third on the team in rushing with 687 yards on 96 carries and five TDs.

With a proven commodity in Stanton returning at quarterback, Smith says the coaching staff will focus on identifying a capable backup. Smith has some talented youngsters to choose from, but no Spartan quarterback outside of Stanton has taken a single snap in a regular-season game.

Brian Hoyer (6-2, 204, R-Fr.) has emerged as a strong candidate to hold down the No. 2 spot on the depth chart after completing 29-of-46 passes (.630) for 313 yards, five touchdown and two interceptions in three spring scrimmages. Dominic Natale (6-1, 185, Fr.) is a first-year player who figures to provide depth behind Stanton and Hoyer after connecting of 14-of-26 throws (.538) for 164 yards and a score during the spring scrimmages.

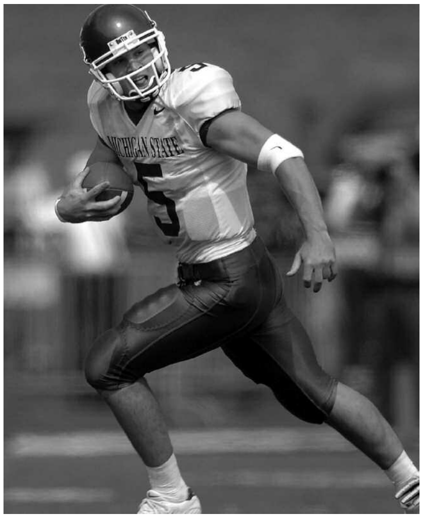
SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE QUARTERBACKS

"Drew Stanton is capable of keeping you in ball games because he's such a threat as both a runner and passer. He's extremely accurate as a passer and an elusive runner. Drew has the ability to make tacklers miss. He's a great competitor who isn't afraid to put the other guys on his back because he's going to find a way to win. Drew has matured in the offense and so too have the coaches because they've molded the offense to suit him better.

"Without a doubt, a top priority is to develop depth at the quarterback position.

"Brian Hoyer is a sharp kid mentally, and he doesn't make a ton of mistakes. He has to learn how to go through his progressions and execute with the proper mechanics, especially with his footwork. Brian's got a quick release, so he can get the ball out to the receivers on their breaks. The more reps Brian gets, the more things will begin to fall into place.

"Domenic Natale's head was swimming because we threw a ton of material at him during the spring. We've been impressed by the way Dom has responded to the pressure. He doesn't get flustered, and he loves to compete. We really like what we've seen from Dom thus far, and we definitely think he's going to be a good quarterback."



Drew Stanton ranks as one of the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks. In 2004, Stanton accounted for 2,288 total yards – the fifth-best single-season mark in Spartan history. He ranked third on the team in rushing with 687 yards, including two 100-yard games. Stanton also completed 64 percent of his passes for 1,601 yards and eight scores.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Michigan State will have a tough task replacing first-team All-Big Ten selection Sean Poole at right tackle, but three starters return from a unit that was supposed to be in a rebuilding mode last season before emerging to form one of the nation's top offensive lines. MSU averaged 238.5 yards rushing (No. 10 nationally) last season while allowing the fewest sacks in the Big Ten (eight).

Rimington Trophy and All-America candidate Chris Morris (6-4, 305, Sr.) will anchor the Spartan line from his center position for a third-straight season, having started the last 25 games in a row. To his left will be guard Kyle Cook (6-3, 295, Jr.) and tackle Stefon Wheeler (6-5, 330, Sr.). Cook started all 12 games last season while Wheeler has 22 starting assignments under his belt. Gordon Niebylski (6-3, 312, Sr.), who played in all 12 games last season including three starts, is projected as the starter at right guard. Mike Gyetvai (6-7, 307, So.), who has less experience but unlimited potential, is penciled in at the starting right tackle spot.

Tackle Pete Clifford (6-7, 327, So.) is the only other returning letterwinner who could figure in the mix, while highly-touted red-shirt freshman Roland Martin (6-5, 318, R-Fr.) could make an impact.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE OFFENSIVE LINE

"We're definitely going to rely on the vets along the offensive line. Many of those guys have seen significant playing time during their careers. When you look at what the offense accomplished last year, you come to the realization that as Drew Stanton matured at quarterback, so too did the offensive line. Drew and the line grew up together.

"There's no doubt that Chris Morris is the mainstay of our offensive line. He plays a crucial position because every play starts with the ball in his hand. Chris is a very sharp player who plays with remarkable consistency. Each week, he grades out well across the board.

"Stefon Wheeler adds a lot of maturity to the unit. Stefon has been pushed into more of a leadership role and we hope that he responds by being more vocal in the huddle. He's been a good football player here for a long time and his teammates respect him. Stefon has a lot of skill and I really believe that he can be as good as he wants to be this season.

"Kyle Cook knows that there's only one way to play this game and that's with great effort. I simply love the way he approaches and plays the game. He has a great attitude and plays to win every down. Kyle almost brings a defensive mentality to the offensive line because he's looking for heavy contact.

"Gordon Niebylski is a cerebral football player. He understands his limitations and plays to his strengths. Gordy isn't blessed with all the physical tools but he knows how he must play the game to have success.

"Mike Gyetvai has come a long way, and he's getting better all the time. He definitely has all the tools, but he needs to become more aggressive and cut it loose. He's athletic. He can bend his knees and move. Mike is capable of doing everything that we're going to ask him to do, but he has to hit the hot button and compete every snap.

"Roland Martin is a real talent. He has the combination of a great body with great athletic ability. For a guy his size, he runs like a deer. He simply needs to get enough reps to develop the confidence to play the game at the right speed. Once he adjusts to the speed factor, he's going to be really good."

Veteran center Chris Morris has been a model of consistency, grading out 90 percent or better in 30 of 33 career games played.

WIDE RECEIVERS

If there's one area where depth does not appear to be a concern, it's wide receiver. Starters return at all three receiver spots, and capable backups abound.

Jerramy Scott (5-10, 186, Jr.) is back as the slot receiver after leading Michigan State in catches (39) and receiving yards (444) last season while hauling in three touchdowns. Split end Matt Trannon (6-6, 277, Sr.) finished second on the squad in with 36 receptions for 405 yards and a pair of scores, and his size and speed presents match-up problems for opponents.

Kyle Brown (6-1, 210, Sr.) caught 23 passes for 302 yards and a touchdown at the flanker position last season and adds big-play potential to the Spartan passing game. Brown, who will be a starter for a third-consecutive year, had 10 catches for 272 yards and four scores in three spring scrimmages.

Terry Love (5-11, 173, So.), a backup at split end, had a strong rookie season with 21 catches for 258 yards and a score. Aaron Alexander (6-5, 206, Sr.) was slowed all last season by off-season foot surgery, but still caught 15 passes for 178 yards. Diego Oquendo (5-9, 178, Fr.) is a newcomer who will push the veterans for playing time.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE WIDE RECEIVERS

"I do expect our wide outs to be at the top of their game because we lost only one receiver from a year ago.

Matt Trannon came on strong during the 2004 campaign, finishing with a career-best 36 receptions for 405 yards and two touchdowns.

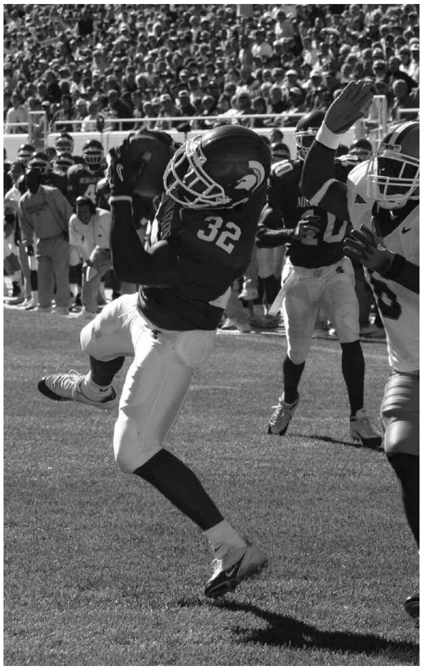
"Jerramy Scott is asked to do a lot in this offensive package, and he continues to be a productive receiver. He emerged as a steady playmaker last season, and we're expecting bigger things from him this fall.

"Matt Trannon made tremendous strides – mostly mental – as a receiver last year. He really changed his entire approach to the game. He brought a positive attitude to the field every day and worked hard to improve. He's a great physical talent who can be as good as he wants to be. I expect Matt to continue to improve and if he does, than he's going to develop into a big-time player."

"Kyle Brown had a fantastic spring. Kyle is our most experienced receiver, plus he possesses all the intangibles, including a great work ethic. He has a great approach to the game, and I wish others on this team would follow his example. Kyle doesn't talk much, but he comes to the practice field ready to work had and improve. He has invested a lot of time in improving his pass catching and all of that had work is paying off because he's consistently producing big plays.

"I'm pleased with the progress Terry Love made last season because he showed some signs of being a big-play receiver. Terry needs to move that notch up a level higher this time around.

"Diego Oquendo is definitely going to push for playing time. He made a ton of progress during the spring. Diego showed a lot of promise, and we expect him to step in right away and contribute. He can catch the ball, plus he's blessed with great quickness."



Jerramy Scott again figures to be a key weapon in Michigan State's offensive playbook in 2005. Scott led the team in receptions with 39 for 444 yards and three touchdowns in 2004.

TIGHT END

The Spartans lost a pair of experienced tight ends in Jason Randall and Eric Knott, but not all the veterans are gone. Ryan Woods (6-4, 259, Sr.), who has 12 career receptions, is back and aiming for a rare fifth letter. He will be pushed by Kellen Davis (6-6, 241, So.), who saw action in 11 games as a true freshman.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE TIGHT ENDS

"Tight end is definitely an area of concern because we're so green at that position. Hopefully, our veteran receivers can take some of the pressure off of Woods and Davis. We won't utilize the double tight-end sets nearly as much as we have in the past. Also don't be surprised to see us line up in more open sets. We simply have to adapt our offense to the available personnel.

"Ryan Woods is really making a true effort to become a better blocker. He's made a lot of progress in that area because he has improved his pad level. He's taken the challenge to heart, and he's becoming a more physical player. Ryan isn't blessed with a great deal of speed, but he consistently catches the ball.

"Kellen Davis definitely has the speed to go down the field and make plays. He truly has the ability to help stretch the defense. He must continue to make strides as a blocker, especially in terms of playing with the proper techniques and pad level. We're pushing him to get bigger and stronger, but I do like his versatility. We can move Kellen around and put him in the flex position some or even split him out at times."

RUNNING BACK

Michigan State surprised many observers last year by rushing for 2,862 yards as a team, and most of those who were responsible for those yards return. Speedburner DeAndra Cobb and his team-high 728 yards rushing are gone, but all-around back Jason Teague (5-9, 193, Sr.) and bruising back Jehuu Caulcrick (6-0, 245, So.) provide a potent 1-2 punch in the backfield.

Jason Teague has emerged as a complete back, finishing second on the team in rushing (150 carries for 688 yards) and fourth in receiving (28 catches for 219 yards).

Teague rushed for 688 yards and a team-best eight touchdowns last season and was fourth on the squad with 28 catches for 219 yards and two scores. He has scored 13 career touchdowns during a career that already spans 37 games played.

Caulcrick was fourth on the squad with 619 yards on the ground on 113 carries (5.5 avg.) and rushed for five touchdowns. He had four games with at least 85 yards rushing, including a career-high 146 yards on 13 carries vs. Wisconsin.

Tony Howard (5-10, 198, R-Fr.), a potentially explosive player, will compete for playing time after redshirting last season.

COACH SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE RUNNING BACKS

"We have a solid 1-2 punch at running back in Jason Teague and Jehuu Caulcrick. We don't have a game breaker like DeAndra Cobb, who had great acceleration, but we have two bangers who consistently produce 5-to-6 yards per carry.

"Jason is truly a workhorse, while Jehuu is still learning how to become a punishing runner. Jason is a true blue-collar back. He's a productive player that plays his tail off.

"Jehuu Caulcrick is so green that he has no clue how good a player he can become. Jehuu has deceptive speed for a back his size. He gets around that corner a little quicker than you think.

"Tony Howard will be give an opportunity to contribute this fall. He has displayed some explosion and toughness."

Jehuu Caulcrick showed flashes of brilliance last season, ranking fourth on the team in rushing with 619 yards and five touchdowns.

DEFENSIVE LINE

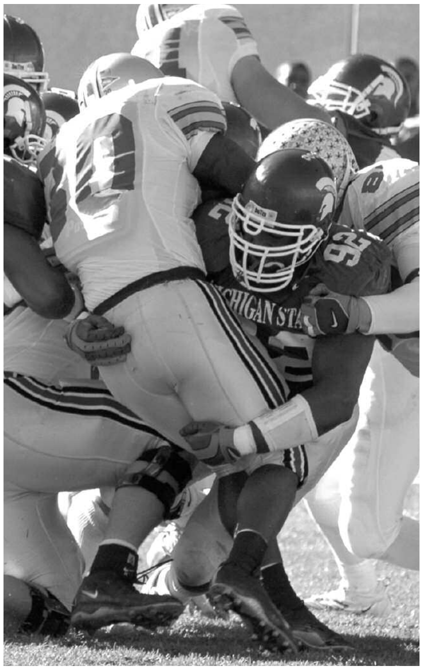
A pair of starters and some experienced backups and junior college transfers help solidify the Spartan defensive line, but the unit will be asked to put more pressure on opposing quarterbacks than it did last season when MSU managed just 21 sacks in 12 games. Gone are defensive end Clifford Dukes and defensive tackle Kevin Vickerson, who combined for seven of those 21 sacks.

Clifton Ryan (6-2, 302, Jr.) is a star in the making at stud end. He posted 41 tackles including eight for losses last season, and led the team with seven quarterback hurries. The other returning starter is defensive tackle Brandon McKinney (6-3, 320, Sr.), who collected 42 stops last season.

Michael Bazemore (6-3, 270, Sr.) is the top candidate to replace Dukes at rush end, while Domata Peko (6-2, 320, Sr.) is expected to take Vickerson's defensive tackle position. Bazemore produced 17 tackles, including 13 solo hits, while playing in 11 games last season. Peko saw action in all 14 games last season and collected 14 tackles.

Defensive tackle Joe Toth (6-2, 292, So.), who played in seven games last season including a starting assignment vs. Central Michigan, should figure in the playing rotation. Ends Nick Smith (6-6, 265, So.) and Justin Kershaw (6-4, 253, R-Fr.) have both made impressive strides and should see significant minutes.

A trio of junior college transfers could make an immediate impact. Bobby Jones (6-4, 299, Jr.) has been rated among the Big Ten's top newcomers, Jonal Saint-Dic (6-1, 260, Jr.) was an NJCAA second-team All-American and David Stanton (6-3, 291, Jr.) has been ranked among the nation's top 100 JUCO prospects.



Clifton Ryan anchors Michigan State's defensive front from the stud end position. In 2004, Ryan recorded 41 tackles, including eight for losses (26 yards).

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE DEFENSIVE LINE

"Depth remains a concern on the defensive line. Those junior college transfers are going to have to contribute right off the bat, guys like Bobby Jones, David Stanton and Jonal Saint-Dic.

"By far, Clifton Ryan was our most productive defensive lineman last year. Clifton is relentless when he steps on the field. He possesses a great attitude, plus a great motor. We enjoy working with him because he's so coachable. He approaches practice the right way, viewing it as an opportunity to improve. It upsets him when he doesn't do the little things correctly.

"I really, truly believe that Brandon McKinney can be a great, dominating inside player, but he must learn to manage his weight. Brandon's a hard man to block because he's such a load. I'd love to see him play an entire season around 300 pounds, instead of having him around for six games at 330.

"Consistent is probably the best word to describe Michael Bazemore because he's going to give you everything he's got every time he steps on the field. He's really come a long, long way as a player. We don't have a great deal of depth at defensive end, so he's going to have to play a ton of snaps this fall. Hopefully, Michael can become more of a playmaker.

David Herron Jr. emerged as one of the team's top playmakers in 2005, with eight tackles for losses (31 yards) including three sacks (20).

"Domata Peko has really improved his upper body strength, and he's playing with a better pad level. Coming out of junior college, Domata didn't have a lot of experience playing inside. Now, he knows what life's about down inside and he's picked up the pace, especially in terms of taking on the double-team blocks. Domata is becoming a more physical player inside, and I think he has a chance to be a good, steady player inside.

"Nick Smith is another young defensive lineman that has made steady progress. Unfortunately, he banged his knee in the spring and missed some valuable practice time. Nick is a guy that has displayed the ability to make big plays.

"Justin Kershaw is another guy who's going to give you great effort every time he lines up. He's becoming more of a technician, and as a result, he's becoming a better football player. Justin's going to have an impact."

LINEBACKER

Michigan State will miss the steady play of middle linebacker Ronald Stanley, a four-year starter who led the team with 125 tackles last season, and bandit Tyrell Dortch from last year's corps of linebackers. But a shift of positions will help stabilize the group.

In an effort to get his best 11 defenders on the field, Coach Smith has moved Eric Smith (6-1, 202, Sr.), a two-year starter at strong safety, to the bandit position. Smith ranked second on the team in tackles last season, recording a career-best 115 stops, and his combination of strength and speed makes him an ideal candidate for the hybrid position.

Also back is whip linebacker David Herron Jr. (6-1, 246, Jr.). In his first season as a starter, Herron ranked fourth on the team in tackles (95) and production points (133) while adding eight tackles for losses (31 yards).

Kaleb Thornhill (6-1, 240, So.) is expected to step into the middle linebacker starting spot. Thornhill started four games last season at the bandit position and made 32 tackles while appearing in all 12 games.

A pair of second-year players should also be contributors. Eric Andino (6-4, 232, So.) will see time behind Thornhill at middle linebacker, while Sir Darean Adams (6-0, 222, So.) has made great strides at the bandit position.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE LINEBACKERS

"David Herron Jr. has become an exceptional football player. He has made more progress than any other player on the roster over the last three years. David took it upon himself to improve in every aspect of the game: in the weight room, in the classroom and in his mental approach to the game. He has a knack for making big plays, and he's really trying to emerge as a leader. David plays an important position (on the field) in terms of providing leadership. I really like what he has done, and others should follow his example.

"Eric Smith looks so natural and gives us exactly what we're looking for at the bandit position. Eric has tremendous intelligence, great football knowledge and the natural instincts to make all the proper adjustments in the secondary. We really believe that Eric can be a great player at the bandit position, and he'll have plenty of opportunities to be a playmaker at that position.

"Depth is a major concern at linebacker. Eric Andino made great strides during the spring because he's beginning to mature. He certainly has the size and range that we're looking for to play that position."

Eric Smith ranks as MSU's most experienced player in the defensive backfield, with 25 career starts.

DEFENSIVE BACK

There will be a lot of new faces in the Spartan defensive secondary in 2005, as the Spartans lost free safety Jason Harmon and cornerback Roderick Maples to graduation and strong safety Eric Smith to the bandit position.

Jaren Hayes (5-9, 180, Sr.) is the lone returning starter in the secondary, and even he has just one year at that position after making the switch from running back after his sophomore season. Hayes, making the switch from left to right corner this season, was sixth on the team with 68 tackles a year ago, and added eight pass break-ups.

Ashton Watson (5-11, 189, Sr.), who has seen action in 31 games during his first three seasons, is slated to start at left cornerback. Backups at the corners include Travis Key (5-10, 181, So.), who made a name for himself during the spring with 12 tackles and five pass break-ups in three scrimmages, and Irving Campbell (5-11, 180, So.), who made the switch from wide receiver to cornerback during spring drills.

Greg Cooper (5-11, 189, Jr.) is the heir apparent to replace Harmon at free safety. Cooper appeared in all 12 games last season and made two starts while producing 17 tackles and five pass break-ups.

Cole Corey (5-10, 194, So.) is expected to join Cooper in the backfield as the starting strong safety. Corey saw action in the first eight games during his rookie season and was a key special teams performer.

Mike Bell (5-11, 189, So.), who played in the last nine games of 2004, is ticketed for back-up duty at free safety, while Tom Dance (6-1, 205, R-Fr.) is a strong candidate for playing time at strong safety.

SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE DEFENSIVE BACKS

"Overall, the secondary showed a lot of improvement in the spring, but we still have a long way to go.

"Our cornerbacks can't simply allow receivers clean releases off the line of scrimmage. The corners need to know where the help is coming from and learn how to leverage the football. We also need to become a little bit tougher in the secondary. They need to step up and make more tackles and try to become more physical in jamming routes.

"Jaren Hayes deserves a pat on the back for what he did last year, making the transition from running back to cornerback. I expect Jaren will play with a great deal more confidence this fall after being picked on last season. He has good strength, and he isn't afraid to play physical.

"Ashton Watson has played his fair share during his career, but now, it's time for him to step up and be accountable on every snap. He can't do it right some of the time and expect to stay in the lineup.

"Greg Cooper is going to be a solid free safety. Here's a guy that isn't afraid to step into the box and hit you, plus he has the ability to cover. Greg is a guy that might start at free safety but then serve as a backup outside at corner.

"It's time for Cole Corey to step up and become a major contributor.

"Tom Dance is beginning to learn how to play this game. Tom made a lot of progress during the spring, but he still needs a ton more snaps."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Michigan State has holes to fill in the special teams, as a former All-American (DeAndra Cobb) and the school's all-time leading point scorer (Dave Rayner) have departed for the NFL, but the news isn't all bad.

All-American Brandon Fields (6-6, 230, Jr.) is back for his third season as the team's punter. Fields owns an MSU- and Big Ten-record 47.1-yard career average, and led the NCAA in punting last season with a 47.9-yard average. Fields hit 23 punts 50 or more yards last year and had 13 kicks downed inside the opponents 20-yard line.

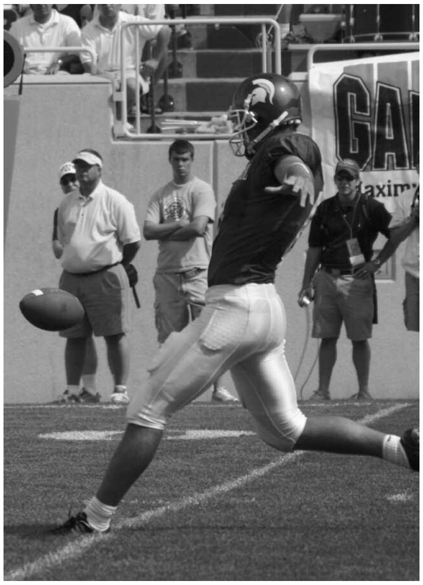
Rayner had handled the placekicking duties for the past four seasons, but this year those chores are turned over to John Goss (6-3, 218, R-Jr.). Goss, who can also contribute as a punter, hit 5-of-6 field goal attempts including a 43-yarder during his sophomore season at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College.

Carl Grimes (5-9, 171, R-Fr.) will get the first crack and filling the shoes of DeAndra Cobb, who had four kickoff returns for touchdowns during his two-year Spartan career. Punt return duties are expected to be handled by Kyle Brown (6-1, 210, Sr.), who Coach Smith thought did a great job in a limited role in that area last season.

COACH SMITH TALKS ABOUT THE SPECIAL TEAMS

"We're planning on turning Brandon Fields loose this fall. He responded well in the spring to our new coverage scheme, and he consistently hit the ball better. Brandon must work to improve his hang time because our biggest concern remains out-kicking the coverage. Hopefully, our new-fangled punt formation will work, so we get to provide better coverage for his long kicks."

"John Goss has certainly been meeting our expectations as a kicker. Perhaps he doesn't have as big a leg as Dave Rayner, but he brings great consistency to the table. He's a very conscientious kid, and he takes his role with this team very seriously. John goes out to the practice field and works at his craft and he has the right frame of mind. I really like his attitude and his consistency, and I expect him to have a big year."



All-American Brandon Fields, who led the NCAA in punting with his 47.9-yard average in 2005, has the ability to create field position with his powerful leg.

TOP NEWCOMERS:

DT Bobby Jones (Ranked among the nation's top 50 JUCO prospects; recorded 34 tackles in 2004, with 8 for losses including 4 sacks)
RB Javon Ringer (SuperPrep All-American; rushed for 1,790 yards and 21 TDs in 2004)
DL Jonal Saint-Dic (NJCAA second-team All-American; led the league in tackles for losses and sacks in 2004)
DL David Stanton (Rated among the nation's top 20 JUCO defensive tackles by Collegefootballnews.com)
DB Demond Williams (NJCAA All-Region honors in 2004; 4 interceptions in 2004; returned 15 kickoffs for 472 yards in 2004)

THE STRENGTHS:

Offensive Line – Six lettermen return on Michigan State's offensive line, including four players with starting experience. The returning starters are center Chris Morris, left guard Kyle Cook and left tackle Stefon Wheeler. That trio is responsible for 59 combined starting assignments.

Running Game – The Spartans ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 10 in the NCAA in rushing, averaging 238.5 yards per game in 2004. Three of Michigan State's top four rushers return, including Jason Teague (150 carries for 688 yards and 8 TDs), Drew Stanton (96 for 687 and 5 TDs) and Jehuu Caulcrick (113 for 619 and 5 TDs).

Wide Receiver – Five lettermen return at wide receiver, including three starters: Jerramy Scott (39 receptions for 444 yards and 3 TDs), Matt Trannon (36 for 405 and 2 TDs) and Kyle Brown (23 for 302 and 1 TD).

THE QUESTIONS:

Defensive Playmakers – On the defensive side of the football, Michigan State's biggest challenge is identifying some playmakers. Last season, the Spartans ranked near the bottom of the Big Ten in takeaways (10th with 14), rushing defense (9th at 172.4 yards allowed per game) and sacks (9th with 21 for 155 yards).

Tight End – Gone are three lettermen at tight end, including Jason Randall and Eric Knott, who combined for 137 career receptions for 1,567 yards and 16 TDs.

Quarterback Depth – Drew Stanton is a proven commodity, but none of the other quarterbacks on the roster have ever taken a snap from center during a regular-season game.

Placekicker – Gone is record-setting placekicker Dave Rayner, who ranks as Michigan State's all-time leader in scoring (334 career points), field goals (62 made) and extra points (148 made).

THIRD SEASON

The resurgence of the Michigan State football program began on Dec. 19, 2002, when John L. Smith became the University's 23rd head coach.

When Smith took over the Michigan State football program, he knew his mission wasn't an easy one. Playing against a 2004 schedule that featured seven bowl participants, Smith's Spartans saw four of the 12 games decided by eight points or less. Unfortunately, Michigan State dropped all four of those nail biters by a combined total of 23 points.

Despite falling short in their quest for a second-straight bowl bid, the Spartans (5-7, 4-4 Big Ten) produced some impressive results in 2004, recording two victories over ranked opponents. Michigan State dominated play in all three phases of the game in stunning No. 4 Wisconsin, 49-14. Against the Badgers, the Spartans had two goal-line stands, amassed 430 yards on the ground and blocked a punt for a touchdown. Michigan State was equally as impressive in its 51-17 triumph over No. 19 Minnesota as the Spartans produced a season-best 636 total yards while limiting the nation's third-best running game to just 102 yards – 199 below its season average.

In 2004, Michigan State featured one of the nation's most prolific offensive attacks. The Spartans led the Big Ten and ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in total offense (460.0 yards per game) while racking up a school single-season record 5,520 total yards. In addition, Michigan State finished second in the Big Ten and No. 10 nationally in rushing, averaging 238.5 yards per game. In Big Ten play, the Spartans rushed for a league-best 265.8 yards per game. The 2,862 rushing yards marked the sixth-best single-season total in Spartan history.

Overall, the 2004 Spartans produced top 10 single-season totals in seven different offensive categories, including total offense (No. 1: 5,520 total yards), total yards per game (No. 2: 460.0 ypg.), first downs (No. 2: 269), rushing yards (No. 6: 2,862), total points (No. 8: 353), passing yards (No. 9: 2,658) and scoring average (No. 10: 29.4 ppg.).

Michigan State football also posted some remarkable numbers in the classroom as a school-record 13 Spartans earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2004. In two seasons under Smith, 23 student-athletes have been named Academic All-Big Ten, the highest two-year total in program history.

When Smith arrived in East Lansing, he brought with him a reputation as a program builder from his previous head-coaching tenures at Idaho, Utah State and Louisville. He has only enhanced that track record at Michigan State, earning the Dave McClain Coach of the Year award as selected by the Big Ten media panel. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 in 2002, orchestrated the nation's fifth-biggest regular-season turnaround by producing an 8-4 record in 2003. After finishing eighth in the league with a 2-6 mark in 2002, the Spartans climbed to fourth in the final Big Ten standings at 5-3.

His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in school history. Smith also became only the second first-year coach in Spartan history to earn a postseason bowl bid (Alamo Bowl vs. Nebraska), joining Nick Saban who guided the 1995 team to a 6-5-1 record including a trip to the Independence Bowl.

Michigan State opened the 2003 campaign with a 7-1 record – its best start since 1966. The Spartans put together a five-game winning streak that featured victories over three ranked opponents: Notre Dame (NR/No. 23), Iowa (No. 13/9) and Minnesota (No. 25/19). Following its 44-38 victory at Minnesota, Michigan State ascended to No. 9 in The Associated Press poll – its first appearance in the AP Top 10 since the 1999 season. In addition, the Spartans opened Big Ten play 4-0 for just the third time since joining the league in 1953.

Smith wasted little time injecting doses of confidence and fiery competitiveness. His influences were evident in all three phases of the game. Veteran quarterback Jeff Smoker thrived in the spread offense, leading the Big Ten in both passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). Thanks to his aggressive defensive philosophy, the Spartans led the Big Ten in sacks (45 for 299 yards) and takeaways (29) while finishing second in turnover margin (+11). Michigan State boasted arguably one of the nation's best kicking tandems, in punter Brandon Fields (No. 2 in NCAA with 46.3 avg.) and placekicker Dave Rayner (No. 10 in NCAA with school-record 22 made field goals). In addition, All-American DeAndra Cobb ranked No. 11 nationally in kickoff returns with his 27.2-yard average, including an NCAA record-tying three runbacks for touchdowns.

The 56-year-old Smith has compiled a 123-72 record (.631) in 16 years as a college head coach, including an impressive 80-32 mark (.714) in conference games. He ranks No. 12 among active NCAA I-A football coaches in career victories (123) and No. 17 in career winning percentage (.631). Smith has produced six conference champions (two Conference USA, two Big West and two Big Sky). Twelve of his 16 teams have participated in postseason play, including seven-straight bowl appearances from 1997-2003. Smith is one of 18 head coaches in college football history to take three different teams to bowl games, including one of just four active coaches to accomplish this feat (Mack Brown: Tulane, North Carolina and Texas; Dennis Franchione: New Mexico, TCU, Alabama and Texas A&M; and Ken Hatfield: Air Force, Arkansas and Clemson).

Smith came to Michigan State following five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he led the Cardinals to unprecedented success. He put together a 41-21 worksheet (.661), including five-straight bowl appearances and back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2000-01. The five bowl trips equaled the number of postseason appearances Louisville had made prior to his arrival and the five-consecutive winning seasons marked a first for the program.

The 2002 Cardinals went 7-6 overall, including a 38-15 loss to Marshall in the GMAC Bowl. Louisville finished third in the C-USA standings at 5-3, one game behind co-champions Texas Christian and Cincinnati. The highlight of the 2002 season came on Sept. 26 when the Cardinals knocked off No. 4 Florida State in overtime, 26-20. Louisville ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17 at 113.0 ypg.) and total defense (No. 22 at 319.9 ypg.). The Cardinals produced a league-best six first-team All-Conference USA selections, including Offensive Player of the Year Dave Ragone (quarterback) and Special Teams Player of the Year Broderick Clark (kick returner).

In 2001, Smith earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors after leading Louisville to a school-record 11 victories, including a 28-10 triumph over Brigham Young in the Liberty Bowl. Louisville became the first program in C-USA history to win back-to-back league titles while Ragone and defensive end Dewayne White became the first C-USA players from the same school to receive offensive and defensive player of the year honors in the same season. The Cardinals were ranked among The Associated Press Top 25 for seven-straight weeks, finishing No. 17 (No. 16 in USA Today/ESPN final poll).

The 2000 team won its last four regular-season games to claim Louisville's first Conference USA championship and a berth in the Liberty Bowl. Louisville finished 9-3 overall, posting its most wins since 1993, while also making its first appearance in the national polls in seven years. For his efforts, the Football Writers Association of America named Smith one of three finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. The 2000 Cardinals featured a high-scoring offense and a relentless defense. Louisville averaged better than 35 points per game during the regular season, scoring touchdowns 73 percent of the time it reached the red zone. The Cardinals also ranked among the NCAA's leaders in rushing defense (No. 4) and total defense (No. 15). Louisville's defense led the nation in turnovers forced with 37, including 10 interceptions from All-America safety Anthony Floyd.

In 1999, Louisville won four of its last five regular-season games en route to a 7-5 record overall, 4-2 in C-USA play. For the second year in a row, the Cardinals were listed among the nation's top 10 in scoring, passing offense and total offense. Six players earned first-team All-Conference USA honors while five rookies were named to the all-freshman team.

The revival of Louisville's football program began in 1998. Smith, who inherited a team that went winless in the league and finished 1-10 in 1997, produced the biggest turnaround among NCAA I-A programs in 1998 by guiding the Cardinals to a 7-5 record overall, 4-2 in C-USA action. Louisville led the nation in total offense, averaging 559.6 yards per game, while also ranking among the NCAA leaders in passing offense (No. 3 at 408.9 ypg.) and scoring (No. 6 at 40.4 ppg.). The Cardinals topped the 50-point mark four times in 1998, including three 60-point games. Quarterback Chris Redman finished second in the nation in total offense, averaging 400.9 yards per game. Louisville broke or tied 84 school or C-USA records in Smith's first season.

Prior to his appointment at Louisville, Smith posted a 16-18 ledger (.471) in three seasons at Utah State. He took over a Utah State program that had produced only two winning seasons in the previous 15 years and led the Aggies to consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97, finishing 6-5 and 6-6, respectively.

In 1997, Utah State won four of its last five regular-season games and earned a trip to the Humanitarian Bowl. It marked the program's second bowl appearance since 1961. In 1997, the Aggies were listed among the NCAA leaders in total offense (No. 9 at 449.4 yards per game), passing offense (No. 14 at 280.5 ypg.), scoring offense (No. 17 at 33.6 points) and rushing defense (No. 25 at 115.6 ypg.).

In 1996, Utah State forged a 6-5 overall mark despite facing a demanding non-league schedule, with home games against Utah and Brigham Young and road contests at Southern Miss, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech. The Aggies ranked among the nation's top 10 in passing offense (No. 7 at 317.5 yards per game) and total offense (No. 9 at 468.5 ypg.).

The Aggies compiled a 4-7 record overall in 1995 but narrowly missed posting a winning season, losing four games by a combined total of 14 points. Smith's one-back offense produced impressive numbers in 1995, with Utah State ranking among the NCAA leaders in passing offense (No. 14 at 270.5 ypg.) and total offense (No. 16 at 434.2). The defense certainly did its share to keep the Aggies in the Big West title race, allowing fewer than 16 points per game in league play. Utah State finished among the league leaders in every defensive category – second in total defense, second in passing defense and third in rushing defense.

A native of Idaho Falls, Idaho, Smith arrived at Utah State following six seasons at the University of Idaho where he became the winningest coach in school history. His six-year mark of 53-21 (.716) at Idaho included a 34-11 Big Sky Conference record (.756) and five postseason appearances, including three-straight trips to the NCAA I-AA playoffs from 1992-94. Those five playoff teams also finished the year ranked among the nation's top 20.

His 1994 team won its first seven games, including a 48-38 road victory over eventual Big West Conference champion UNLV, en route to a 9-3 record, a trip to the I-AA playoffs and No. 8 final ranking.

His 1993 squad climbed to No. 1 in the polls following a 28-17 victory at Utah. Idaho lost to eventual national champion Youngstown State, 35-16, in the I-AA semifinals to end up 11-3 (No. 11 final ranking). The Vandals led the nation in both scoring (47.5 points) and total offense (532.0 yards).

His 1992 team won the Big Sky Conference title with a 6-1 record, finished the year ranked fifth nationally and its 9-3 ledger included an impressive road victory over Colorado State, 37-34. Idaho again was listed among the national leaders in total offense (second at 490.0 yards) and scoring (third at 40.6 points).

His 1991 ballclub went 6-5 and ranked second nationally in passing offense (336.3 yards) and third in total offense (482.4 yards).

His 1990 team put together a seven-game winning streak on its way to a 9-4 record and No. 13 national ranking. Idaho lost to eventual national champion Georgia Southern, 28-27, in the I-AA quarterfinals. The Vandals ranked among the national leaders in scoring (second at 37.2 points) and total offense (fifth at 454.6 yards).

His 1989 team won a school-record nine-straight games and became the first team in Big Sky Conference history to complete the league schedule with a perfect 8-0 record. The team finished the year ranked fourth nationally at 9-3.

Smith tutored 12 first-team All-Americans at Idaho, including Walter Payton Award (I-AA Player of the Year) winners John Friesz (1989) and Doug Nussmeier (1993).

Prior to taking over the Idaho head coaching position, Smith spent two years as the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Washington State (1987-88) where he served under former Miami (Fla.) and Oregon State head coach Dennis Erickson, now in his second year as head coach of the National Football League's San Francisco 49ers. He was Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Wyoming during the 1986 season. Smith began his first stint at Idaho in 1982 where he again served as Erickson's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for four years (1982-85). His college coaching credits also include stops at Nevada (1977-81) and Montana (1972-76). During his tenure as defensive coordinator at Nevada, the Wolf Pack led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rushing defense in 1980. He began his coaching career in 1971 as a graduate assistant at Weber State.

A linebacker and quarterback at Weber State, Smith earned Big Sky Conference scholar-athlete honors in 1971-72. He received his undergraduate degree in physical education with a minor in math in 1971. Smith earned a master's of science degree in physical education from the University of Montana in 1974.

He lettered in three sports – football, basketball and track – while attending Bonneville High School in Idaho Falls, Idaho. In 2000, Sports Illustrated recognized Smith as one of Idaho's top 100 athletes of the 20th century. For his accomplishments as both an athlete and head coach, he was inducted into the Idaho Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

Married to the former Diana Flora of Idaho Falls, Smith and his wife are the parents of three children, Nicholas, Kayse and Sam.

Smith has earned quite a reputation for his thrill-seeking adventures. Perhaps, a message hanging on the wall behind his desk in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building provides the best insight into his daredevil mentality: “Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.”

Here are brief recaps of Smith’s most recent adventures:

- In July 2005, Smith went paragliding with his children off the Matterhorn in Zermatt, Switzerland.
- In July 2004, he took his entire family on a wildlife photo safari in Kenya. Smith and his sons left the safari early and traveled to Tanzania to climb a 19,340-foot peak on Mount Kilimanjaro.
- In December 2003, Smith participated in an orientation flight on a T-38 Talon at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas.
- In 2002, he skydived from a Cessna at 14,000 feet over Greensburg, Ind.

DAVE BALDWIN
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
TIGHT ENDS
THIRD SEASON

Former San Jose State and Cal State Northridge head coach Dave Baldwin begins his third season as Michigan State's offensive coordinator and tight ends coach.

In 2004, Michigan State's offense thrived under quarterback Drew Stanton as Baldwin tweaked the spread package to take full advantage of the first-year starter's running ability. The Spartans led the Big Ten and ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in total offense (460.0 yards per game) while piling up a school single-season record 5,520 total yards. In addition, Michigan State finished second in the Big Ten and No. 10 nationally in rushing, averaging 238.5 yards per game. In Big Ten play, the Spartans rushed for a league-best 265.8 yards per game. Michigan State featured a well-balanced ground attack, with four players gaining more than 600 yards including Stanton. The 2,862 rushing yards in 2004 mark the sixth-best single-season total in Spartan history.

All told, the 2004 Spartans produced top 10 single-season totals in seven different offensive categories, including total offense (No. 1: 5,520 total yards), total yards per game (No. 2: 460.0 ypg.), first downs (No. 2: 269), rushing yards (No. 6: 2,862), total points (No. 8: 353), passing yards (No. 9: 2,658) and scoring average (No. 10: 29.4 ppg.).

In its 2004 preseason publication, The Sporting News ranked the 50-year-old Baldwin as the Big Ten's top offensive coordinator.

As tight ends coach, Baldwin also was instrumental in the development of Jason Randall, who earned second-team All-Big Ten honors from the league coaches in 2004.

In 2003, Baldwin earned national recognition for how quickly he helped quarterback Jeff Smoker grasp the spread offense. Smoker, a second-team All-Big Ten selection, led the league in passing (261.2 ypg.) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). His 302 pass completions, 488 pass attempts, 3,395 passing yards and 21 TD passes all represent the top single-season totals in Spartan history. Smoker recorded a single-season record 10 200-yard passing games, including six 300-yard performances. A key to his throwing success was Smoker's ability to utilize all of the weapons at his disposal in the spread offense as seven different receivers each caught at least 20 passes.

Michigan State amassed a school single-season record 3,510 passing yards in 2003. The Spartans also produced 363 total points and 4,776 total yards – the fourth- and fifth-best single-season figures in Spartan history, respectively. Another key to Michigan State's remarkable turnaround was the offense's ability to take care of the football. The Spartans committed just 18 turnovers – the Big Ten's fourth-lowest total (No. 15 in the NCAA). In 2003, Michigan State played five complete games without committing a turnover, including a streak of four straight contests (Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota).

Baldwin came to Michigan State following one season at Baylor where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Kevin Steele. In 2002, senior wide receiver Reggie Newhouse, a second-team All-Big 12 selection, set Baylor single-season records for receptions (75) and receiving yards (1,140). Newhouse also ranked among the NCAA leaders in catches (No. 18 at 6.25 per game) and receiving yards (No. 18 at 95.0 per game).

Baldwin spent the 2001 season as offensive coordinator at Cincinnati under Rick Minter, helping the Bearcats to a 7-5 record and a trip to the Motor City Bowl. Cincinnati ranked among the Conference USA leaders in every offensive category, finishing second in passing offense (269.8 yards per game), third in total offense (416.3 yards), third in scoring offense (29.1 points) and fourth in rushing offense (146.5 yards). The Bearcats also were listed among the national leaders in passing offense (No. 25), total offense (No. 36) and scoring offense (No. 36). Baldwin coached 2001 C-USA Freshman of the Year Gino Guidugli, who finished second in the league in passing (257.3 yards) and third in passing efficiency (137.5 rating). Cincinnati's offense also produced C-USA's leading receiver in LaDaris Vann, who caught 6.64 passes per game.

Baldwin previously served as head coach and offensive play-caller at San Jose State for four years (1997-2000), where he compiled an 18-27 record (.400), including three straight wins over Stanford (1998-2000).

In 2000, San Jose State produced a 7-5 worksheet – its best mark in eight years – including victories over Stanford (40-27) and ninth-ranked Texas Christian (27-24) that ended the nation's longest winning streak at 12 games. The Spartans ranked among the NCAA leaders in every offensive category in 2000, finishing No. 26 in rushing offense (189.1 yards per game), No. 26 in total offense (417.3 yards), No. 30 in scoring offense (31.2 points) and No. 40 in passing offense (228.3 yards). San Jose State's offense also featured the nation's fourth-leading rusher in Deonce Whitaker, who averaged 157.7 yards per game.

His 1999 San Jose State team knocked off Rose Bowl-bound Stanford, 44-39. The Spartans again finished among the national leaders in passing offense in 1999, ranking No. 30 at 249.0 yards per game.

San Jose State opened the 1998 season with a 35-23 victory at Stanford – its first win over a Pac-10 opponent in eight years.

His 1997 Spartan squad produced a 4-7 record overall, including a 4-4 mark in Western Athletic Conference play. It marked the first time in four years that the Spartans had reached the .500 mark in league games. In 1997, San Jose State also posted its first win over a ranked opponent since 1990, upsetting No. 24 Air Force, 25-22.

Prior to taking over the San Jose State head coaching position, Baldwin posted a 9-12 record (.429) in two seasons at Cal State Northridge (1995-96). In 1996, he guided Cal State Northridge to a 7-4 mark – the school's first winning season in four years at the NCAA I-AA level.

Baldwin produced a 31-21 record (.596) in five years as a head coach at the junior college level. In 1994, he led Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College to an 8-3 ledger, including a trip to the Lions Bowl. He went 23-18 (.561) in four seasons at Santa Barbara City College (1990-93). In 1991, Baldwin earned California Community College Region III Coach of the Year honors after helping the Vaqueros to a 9-2 record and a berth in the Potato Bowl.

He spent 10 years as an assistant coach under Jack Elway, first as a graduate assistant at Cal State Northridge in 1979 and then as receivers coach at San Jose State for four years (1981-84) and Stanford for four seasons (1985-88). While coaching at San Jose State, he also worked alongside offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Dennis Erickson. In 1988, Baldwin became the Cardinal passing game coordinator.

The 1986 Stanford team finished 8-4 and earned a trip to the Gator Bowl. It marked the only postseason appearance for the Cardinal in the 1980s.

During his four-year stint as an assistant at San Jose State, the Spartans produced three winning seasons, including the 1981 Pacific Coast Athletic Association championship and a berth in the California Raisin Bowl. Baldwin also tutored four Spartan receivers that went on to play in the National Football League: Mark Nichols, Stacey Bailey, Mervyn Fernandez and Tim Kearse.

He began his coaching career in 1978 as an assistant coach at Granada Hills (Calif.) High School.

Baldwin earned his bachelor's degree in physical education, health and recreation from Cal State Northridge in 1978. He received a master's degree in physical education administration from St. Mary's College (Calif.) in 1986.

Married to the former Kathleen Keiley, Baldwin and his wife are the parents of three children, Sean (26), Ryan (21) and Keiley (18).

CHUCK DRIESBACH

The 52-year-old Driesbach came to Michigan State following three years as defensive coordinator at Ole Miss (2002-04) where he worked under David Cutcliffe. He coached the Rebel linebackers for two seasons (2002 and 2004) and supervised the secondary in 2003.

In 2003, Ole Miss won the Southeastern Conference Western Division title en route to a 10-3 record, including a 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl, and a No. 13 ranking in the final Associated Press poll. The Rebels ranked fourth in the SEC and No. 14 in the NCAA in rushing defense in 2003, allowing 102.5 yards per game. The Ole Miss defensive unit also ranked among the league leaders in tackles for losses (106), interceptions (15) and turnovers forced (25).

In 2002, the Rebels went 7-6 including a 27-23 victory over Nebraska in the Independence Bowl.

During his tenure, two Ole Miss players earned first-team All-SEC honors, including nose tackle Jesse Mitchell (2003) and linebacker Eddie Strong (2002). Driesbach also helped develop two players that were selected in the 2004 National Football League Draft: outside linebacker Charlie Anderson (Houston) and cornerback Von Hutchins (Indianapolis).

Prior to his appointment at Mississippi, Driesbach spent the 2001 season at TCU where he served as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach under Gary Patterson. The Horned Frogs finished 6-6 in 2001, including an appearance in the Galleryfurniture.com Bowl (vs. Texas A&M). In 2001, TCU ranked among the NCAA leaders in both rushing defense (No. 10 at 93.8 yards per game) and total defense (No. 24 at 322.5 ypg.). Driesbach tutored linebacker LaMarcus McDonald, a second-team all-league selection in 2001 who went on to be named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 2002.

He served as defensive coordinator for four years under Gary Darnell at Western Michigan (1997-2000), helping the Broncos win back-to-back Mid-American Conference West Division titles in 1999-2000. Driesbach worked with the Bronco outside linebackers for the first three years before taking over the safeties in 2000.

Western Michigan recorded three shutouts (vs. Indiana, Kent State and Eastern Michigan) on its way to a 9-3 overall record in 2000. The Broncos also snapped the nation's longest home winning streak at 33 games by posting a 30-10 victory over Marshall in Huntington, W.Va. Western Michigan ranked among the NCAA leaders in scoring defense (No. 4 at 11.6 points per game), total defense (No. 9 at 283.3 ypg.) and rushing defense (No. 20 at 105.3 ypg.) in 2000. The Broncos held seven opponents below the 100-yard rushing mark, while four opponents failed to throw for 100 yards in a game. For his efforts in 2000, Driesbach was nominated for the Frank Broyles Award, which is named in honor of the former Arkansas head coach and presented annually to the nation's top assistant football coach.

In his final season at Western Michigan, Driesbach worked with defensive end Jason Babin, who became the only true freshman on the Bronco roster to letter in 2000. Babin went on to earn All-America honors as a senior in 2003 and became the first player in WMU history to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft, going to Houston (No. 27 overall) in 2004.

In 1997, he played a major role in helping Western Michigan post the nation's biggest turnaround, producing an 8-3 record after finishing just 2-9 in 1996.

Driesbach spent four years as defensive coordinator under John Majors at Pittsburgh (1993-96) where his pupils included three future NFL players: defensive back Anthony Dorsett Jr. (Houston, 1996; Tennessee, 1997-99; and Oakland, 2000-03), linebacker Tom Tumulty (Cincinnati, 1996-99) and defensive tackle Mike Mohring (San Diego, 1997-2001; and Oakland, 2002).

He worked for three years as defensive coordinator under Jim Hofher at Cornell (1990-92), where he helped the Big Red to a combined record of 19-11 (.633), including the 1990 Ivy League championship.

In 1989, Driesbach began his first stint at Ole Miss where he coached the defensive secondary for Billy Brewer. The Rebels finished 8-4 in 1989, including a 42-29 victory over Air Force in the Liberty Bowl.

His college coaching credits include a two-year stop at East Carolina (1987-88) where he worked with the running backs in addition to performing the duties of admissions and academic coordinator for head coach Art Baker. While on the ECU coaching staff, Driesbach recruited linebacker Robert Jones, who later became a consensus All-American and Butkus Award finalist in 1991 and a first-round pick (No. 24 overall) by Dallas in the 1992 NFL Draft.

Driesbach spent three seasons at Wake Forest (1984-86) where he coached on both sides of the football for Al Groh. He worked with the defensive line for two years before overseeing the receivers and tight ends in 1986. During his tenure with the Demon Deacons, Driesbach tutored three future NFL players, including defensive lineman Gary Baldinger (Kansas City, 1986-88; Indianapolis, 1989; and Buffalo, 1990-92), tight end Greg Scales (New Orleans, 1988-91) and wide receiver Ricky Proehl (Phoenix/Arizona, 1990-94; Seattle, 1995-96; Chicago, 1997; St. Louis, 1998-2002; and Carolina, 2003-present).

He began his coaching career at Kansas State where he spent eight seasons (1976-83), including three years as a graduate assistant under Ellis Rainsburger and five more as a full-time assistant under Jim Dickey. As a graduate assistant, Driesbach worked primarily with the tight ends and receivers, including future NFL All-Pro Paul Coffman (Green Bay, 1978-85; and Kansas City, 1986-87).

From 1979-83, Driesbach coached the Wildcat defensive secondary. In 1982, Kansas State (6-5-1) made its first-ever postseason appearance, earning a trip to the Independence Bowl (vs. Wisconsin). In 1980, the Wildcats led the NCAA in pass defense, allowing just 91.4 yards per game.

During his stay in Manhattan, Kan., Driesbach recruited three future pros, including wide receivers Eugene Goodlow (New Orleans, 1983-86) and Gerald Alphin (New Orleans, 1990-91) and tailback Tony Jordan (Phoenix, 1989-90).

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Driesbach was a three-year starter at wide receiver for Coach Lou Ferry at Villanova (1972-74). He earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Villanova in 1975.

Married to the former Kim Widmer of Coffeyville, Kan., Driesbach and his wife have two daughters: Lindsay, a junior communication major at Michigan State, and Kate, a sophomore communications major at Ole Miss. Both daughters graduated from Portage (Mich.) Northern High School.

DOUG NUSSMEIER
QUARTERBACKS COACH
THIRD SEASON

Doug Nussmeier is in his third season as quarterbacks coach at Michigan State.

In 2004, Nussmeier tutored first-year starter Drew Stanton, who accounted for 2,288 total yards – the fifth-best single-season mark in Spartan history. Stanton completed 141-of-220 throws for 1,601 yards and eight touchdowns. His .641 completion percentage ranks second on MSU's single-season chart. Stanton also finished third on the team in rushing with 687 yards on 96 carries and five TDs. His 687 yards represent the second-best single-season rushing total by a quarterback in Spartan history. Stanton ranked among the Big Ten leaders in total offense (third at 228.8 yards per game), passing efficiency (fourth with 131.8 rating), rushing (eighth at 68.7 ypg.) and passing (10th at 160.1 ypg.).

Nussmeier deserved much of the credit for the rapid adjustment Jeff Smoker made to the spread offense in 2003. Smoker, a second-team All-Big Ten selection, led the league in passing (261.2 yards per game) and total offense (252.2 ypg.). His 302 pass completions, 488 pass attempts, 3,395 passing yards and 21 TD passes all represent the top single-season totals in Spartan history. He recorded a single-season record 10 200-yard passing games, including six 300-yard performances. Smoker, who was selected by the St. Louis Rams in the sixth round of the 2004 NFL Draft, became the first Spartan quarterback to be drafted since 1996 when Tony Banks went in the second round to the Rams.

The 34-year-old Nussmeier came to Michigan State following two years as an assistant coach in the Canadian Football League.

In 2002, he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Joe Paopao for the expansion Ottawa Renegades. Ottawa ranked seventh in the CFL in passing offense, averaging 221.0 yards per game, with quarterback Dan Crowley throwing for 2,513 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Nussmeier spent the 2001 season as quarterbacks coach with the British Columbia Lions. In 2001, B.C. finished third in the CFL in total offense (357.8 yards per game) and fifth in passing offense (246.1 yards). Lion QB Damon Allen ranked among the league leaders in TD passes (fourth with 18) and passing yards (fifth with 3,631).

He finished his professional football career in 2000, playing in 18 regular-season and three playoff games for Grey Cup champion British Columbia. Nussmeier completed 54-of-94 throws (.574) for 768 yards, six TDs and two interceptions. He also rushed for 183 yards and a score. In a 49-42 overtime loss to Edmonton, Nussmeier threw for 178 yards and three TDs.

Nussmeier, a fourth-round selection (No. 116 overall) by New Orleans in 1994, spent five years in the National Football League, including four seasons with the Saints (1994-97). While in New Orleans, he played in seven regular-season games, including one start each in 1996 and 1997. During his four years with the Saints, Nussmeier connected on 46-of-82 passes (.561) for 455 yards, one TD and four interceptions. He joined the Indianapolis Colts in 1998.

A native of Lake Oswego, Ore., he was a four-year starter for Coach John L. Smith at Idaho from 1990-93. Nussmeier still ranks among the NCAA I-AA all-time leaders in passing (No. 9 with 10,824 career yards) and total offense (No. 10 at 309.1 yards per game). He is one of only three quarterbacks in NCAA history to throw for at least 10,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards (1,230), joining Alcorn State's Steve McNair (1991-94) and Central Florida's Daunte Culpepper (1996-98). Nussmeier set Vandal career records for passing yards, TD passes (91), passing efficiency (175.2), completion percentage (.609, 746-1,225) and total offense (12,054 yards; 308.4 yards per game).

In 1993, Nussmeier won the Walter Payton Award, presented annually to the I-AA player of the year, after leading the Vandals to an 11-3 record overall and a trip to the national semifinals. As a senior, he completed 185-of-304 throws (.609) for 2,960 yards and a school-record 33 TDs. His 172.2 QB rating in 1993 ranks as the seventh-best single-season mark in I-AA history.

Married to the former Christi Hebert, Nussmeier and his wife have a 3-year-old son Garrett and a 1-year-old daughter Ashlynn.

Selmon tutored the outside linebackers from 1995-2001 before assuming responsibility for the defensive line in 2002. Two of his pupils – outside linebacker Kevin Hardy and defensive end Tony Brackens – earned All-Pro honors.

In 2001, the Jaguars ranked among the AFC leaders in both rushing defense (sixth at 100.7 yards per game) and total defense (seventh at 316.9 ypg.).

In 1999, Jacksonville led the AFC in scoring defense, allowing just 13.6 points per game, while finishing second in rushing defense (90.3 ypg.) and third in total defense (270.9 ypg.).

In 1996, the Jaguars became the first second-year franchise in NFL history to qualify for the playoffs, posting road victories over Buffalo (30-27) and Denver (30-27) before losing at New England (20-6) in the AFC Championship Game.

Selmon spent 19 years as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma, where he helped the Sooners to a combined record of 169-51-3 (.765) from 1976-94, including 16 Top 20 finishes, 16 bowl appearances and nine Big Eight Conference titles. In 1985, the Sooners reeled off eight-straight wins, including a 25-10 victory over Penn State in the Orange Bowl, en route to an 11-1 record and the National Championship.

At Oklahoma, Selmon worked 13 seasons under Barry Switzer (1976-88) and six more under Gary Gibbs (1989-94). He coached the Sooners' defensive line from 1976-83 before taking over duties as outside linebackers and defensive ends coach from 1984-94. From 1980-89, Selmon participated in the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, working with the Denver Broncos' linebackers and defensive ends.

Selmon played two years as a defensive tackle for the Memphis Southmen (1974-75) in the World Football League before entering the coaching profession.

The Eufaula, Okla., native won three letters as a nose guard at Oklahoma where he played for both Chuck Fairbanks (1971-72) and Switzer (1973). The two-time first-team All-Big Eight Conference selection helped the Sooners to a combined record of 32-2-1 (.929) during his playing career, including back-to-back appearances in the Sugar Bowl (1971: defeated Auburn, 40-22; 1972: defeated Penn State, 14-0). In 1973, Selmon earned consensus All-America honors while being named ABC/Chevrolet national Defensive Player of the Year and Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year. He finished second in balloting for the Outland Trophy and seventh in voting for the Heisman Trophy. Selmon, who also was named Big Eight Conference Athlete of the Year in 1973-74, finished his collegiate career with 255 tackles, including 31 for losses (144 yards).

Lucious is the oldest of three brothers that played at Oklahoma in the 1970s. His brothers – Dewey and Lee Roy – were named consensus All-Americans in 1975 while leading the Sooners (11-1) to the national title.

Selmon earned a bachelor's degree in special education from Oklahoma in 1974.

CHRIS SMELAND
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
SAFETIES
THIRD SEASON

Chris Smeland begins his third season as defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Michigan State. Smeland has been a defensive coordinator for 22 years, including the last 10 seasons under head coach John L. Smith.

In 2004, Michigan State's starting safeties Eric Smith and Jason Harmon combined to account for 220 tackles. Smith finished second on the team with 115 tackles, while Harmon ranked third with 105 stops. In 2003, Harmon led the team in tackles (108) and production points (159).

Under Smeland's leadership, the Spartan defense played a major role in the team's remarkable turnaround in 2003. Michigan State led the Big Ten in sacks (45 for 299 yards), takeaways (29) and interceptions (15). The Spartans also ranked among the Big Ten (sixth) and NCAA leaders (27th) in rushing defense, allowing only 124.8 yards per game. In 2003, Michigan State held four opponents under the 100-yard rushing mark while permitting just nine rushing touchdowns.

The Spartans displayed dramatic improvement on the defensive side of the football in 2003, especially when you consider Smeland inherited a unit that ranked ninth in the Big Ten and No. 110 nationally (out of 117) in rushing defense in 2002, surrendering 213.8 yards per game. The 2002 Spartans also finished ninth in the Big Ten in sacks (19 for 113 yards) and takeaways (19).

The 54-year-old Smeland played an integral part in helping Louisville to a combined record of 41-21 (.661), including five-straight bowl appearances and back-to-back Conference USA championships in 2000-01. He helped develop players who earned All-Conference USA honors 16 times, including seven first-team selections.

From 2000-02, Louisville's defense produced an NCAA-best 132 sacks to go along with 86 takeaways, including 54 interceptions.

In 2002, the Cardinals ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 17 at 113.0 yards per game) and total defense (No. 22 at 319.9 ypg.).

In 2001, the Cardinals finished No. 10 nationally in scoring defense, permitting 17.8 points per game.

In 2000, Louisville ranked among the NCAA leaders in rushing defense (No. 4) and total defense (No. 15) while forcing a nation-best 37 turnovers. All-America safety Anthony Floyd led the NCAA with 10 interceptions (tied Akron's Dwight Smith).

During his three-year stint at Utah State (1995-97), the Aggies won consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97. Smeland tutored six first-team All-Big West selections.

In 1997, Utah State led the Big West in every defensive category and finished No. 25 nationally in rushing defense, allowing only 115.6 yards per game.

In 1995, the Aggies also ranked among the league leaders in every defensive category – finishing second in total defense, second in passing defense and third in rushing defense. Utah State allowed fewer than 16 points per game in conference play.

Smeland spent four years on the Hawaii coaching staff (1991-94), working with the inside and outside linebackers in 1991 before being elevated to defensive coordinator in 1992. The Rainbows won a share of the Western Athletic Conference championship in 1992 and finished 11-2 overall, including a 27-17 Holiday Bowl triumph over Illinois, thanks in part to a defensive unit which ranked second in the league in rushing defense (167.2 yards). Smeland tutored two first-team All-WAC selections during his tenure, including nose guard Maa Tanuvasa (1992) and linebacker Junior Faavae (1994).

He previously served as defensive coordinator at Kent State (1988-90) and Cal Poly San Luis Obispo (1982-87). His coaching credits also include stops at Nevada (offensive line, 1979-81), Colorado (outside linebackers, 1978) and Southwestern Louisiana (inside linebackers, 1977).

A four-year letterman as a defensive back at Cal Poly SLO (1970-73), Smeland earned all-conference and All-Little Coast honors as a senior. He also served as team captain in 1973.

Smeland graduated from Cal Poly SLO in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He received his MBA in finance from Colorado in 1976.

Married to the former Barbara Carlsen of Carson City, Nev., Smeland and his wife have three children – Jamie Christine (21), Kathleen Nicole (19) and Kristen Kelly (12).

JEFF STOUTLAND
OFFENSIVE LINE
SIXTH SEASON

During his tenure, Stoutland has helped develop five All-Big Ten selections: guard Shaun Mason (second team, 2000), tackle Steve Stewart (second team, 2003), guard Joe Tate (second team, 2003), tackle Sean Poole (first team, 2004) and guard William Whitticker (second team, 2004). In 2004, Poole became only the second offensive lineman in Big Ten history to earn conference Player of the Week honors after Michigan State amassed 430 yards on the ground in a 49-14 victory over fourth-ranked Wisconsin. In addition, seven of his offensive linemen have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, including Mason (2000), Tate (2001), guard Paul Harker (2002-03), center Chris Morris (2002-03-04), tackle Gordon Niebylski (2002-03-04), guard Pete Clifford (2004) and tackle Mike Gyetvai (2004).

Michigan State displayed a vastly improved running attack in 2004, thanks largely to the speedy development of an offensive line that returned just two starters from the 2003 season. The Spartans ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 10 in the NCAA in rushing, averaging 238.5 yards per game. That marked an improvement of 141 yards per game from 2003. The 2,862 rushing yards also marked the sixth-best single-season total in school history. In Big Ten play, Michigan State rushed for a league-best 265.8 yards per game. The Spartans recorded eight 200-yard rushing games in 2004, including a streak of five-straight games during one stretch (Indiana, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and Michigan).

In 2004, Stoutland instructed an offensive line that permitted the fewest sacks in the Big Ten, allowing only eight in 399 passing attempts.

He also coached former center Brian Ottney, who earned the Up Front Award as MSU's outstanding interior offensive lineman in 2001-02, becoming only the second repeat recipient in the 28-year history of the trophy. Former All-American Tony Mandarich won the award three-straight years from 1986-88.

Stoutland's offensive line helped pave the way for T.J. Duckett, who produced back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in 2000 and 2001. Duckett, the No. 18 pick overall in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons, rushed for 1,420 yards in 2001 – the fifth-best single-season total in Spartan history.

The 43-year-old Stoutland spent three seasons under Paul Pasqualoni at Syracuse (1997-99), where he coached the tight ends his first two years before taking over the offensive line in 1999. In addition to his coaching duties, he also served as the Orangemen's recruiting coordinator for all three years.

Stoutland helped Syracuse to a combined record of 24-13 (.649), including three-straight bowl appearances. In 1999, he coached first-team All-Big East offensive tackle Mark Baniewicz, who also earned the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award and GTE Academic All-America honors. During his stint as tight ends coach, Stoutland helped produce two NFL players, including Roland Williams (Oakland Raiders) and Kaseem Sinceno (Philadelphia Eagles, 1998-99; Chicago Bears, 2000).

Stoutland previously spent four years as offensive line coach at Cornell (1993-96). Former Big Red center Greg Bloedorn, who earned first-team All-Ivy League honors in 1995, spent three years with the NFL's Seattle Seahawks (1997-99).

His full-time coaching credits include two stints at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State, where he served as offensive coordinator for five years (1988-92) and coached inside linebackers for two seasons (1984-85).

The New York City native also served as a graduate assistant for Coach Dick MacPherson for two years at Syracuse (1986-87), working primarily with the offensive line.

Stoutland was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at inside linebacker for Coach Kevin Gilbride at Southern Connecticut State (1980-84), where he earned Little All-America honors as a senior while acting as team captain.

He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State in 1984 and received a master's degree in exercise physiology from the school in 1986.

Stoutland and his wife, Allison, who authors children's books, have two children, Jake (10) and Madison (8).

FOURTH SEASON

Former Spartan assistant coach Dino Folino enters his fourth year as director of player development at Michigan State.

Folino's primary responsibilities include helping first-year student-athletes adjust to the college environment and assisting upperclassmen to prepare for life after competitive football.

Prior to accepting a position in athletics administration, he spent 27 years in the college coaching ranks. Folino returned to Michigan State following four years at Vanderbilt (1998-2001), where he coached the secondary and served as defensive coordinator under Woody Widenhofer.

He worked one season as a defensive coordinator at Alma College (1997) and two years as the defensive backs coach at Albion College (1995-96).

The 56-year-old Folino previously spent seven years as the secondary coach at Michigan State (1988-94) under George Perles. In 1994, Michigan State led the Big Ten in passing defense (103.1 rating). In addition, Folino coached three first-team All-Big Ten selections: safety John Miller (1987-88), safety Harlon Barnett (1989) and cornerback Demetrice Martin (1994).

His college coaching credits also include stops at Rice (1986-87), Penn (1985), Pittsburgh (1981-84), Cincinnati (1977-80), New Hampshire (1976) and Ohio State (1974-75). Folino began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ohio State where the Buckeyes made back-to-back Rose Bowl (1975-76) appearances under legendary Coach Woody Hayes.

SPARTANS FEATURE IMPROVED GROUND ATTACK

Michigan State displayed a vastly improved running attack in 2004. The Spartans ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 10 in the NCAA in rushing, averaging 238.5 yards per game. That's an improvement of 141 yards per game from the 2003 season. In Big Ten play, Michigan State rushed for a league-best 265.8 yards per game in 2004.

The Spartans recorded eight 200-yard rushing games in 2004, including 268 yards vs. Hawaii in the season finale.

Michigan State put together a streak of five-straight 200-yard rushing games during one stretch (Indiana, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and Michigan). It marked the first time since 1996 that Michigan State had posted five-straight 200-yard rushing games in the same season (1996: 249 vs. Eastern Michigan, 236 vs. Iowa, 205 vs. Illinois, 243 vs. Minnesota and 202 vs. Wisconsin).

Michigan State amassed 430 yards on the ground vs. No. 4 Wisconsin, which entered the game ranked sixth in the NCAA in rushing defense permitting 87.3 yards per game. The 430 yards marked the seventh-best single-game rushing total produced by an NCAA I-A team in 2004. It also marked the top single-game rushing total during Spartan head coach John L. Smith's tenure. Michigan State's ground game produced two 100-yard rushers against the Badgers, with Jehuu Caulcrick gaining a career-best 146 yards on 13 carries and Jason Teague picking up a career-high 112 yards on 17 attempts.

Michigan State generated 368 yards on the ground vs. No. 12 Michigan, which entered the game ranked third in the NCAA in rushing defense, permitting 71.6 yards per game. It marked the first time since 1994 that the Spartans produced back-to-back 300-yard rushing games (1994: 312 vs. Northwestern and 347 vs. Purdue). The Spartans manufactured 324 rushing yards in a 51-17 victory over No. 19 Minnesota.

Michigan State's running game accounted for 253 yards vs. Illinois. The Spartans gained 204 yards on the ground vs. Iowa, which entered the game ranked third in the NCAA in rushing defense, allowing 55.5 yards per game. Michigan State rushed for 241 yards vs. Indiana and picked up 231 yards on the ground in the home opener vs. Central Michigan.

By contrast, Michigan State finished last in the Big Ten and No. 111 nationally in rushing in 2003, averaging just 97.4 yards per game. It marked MSU's lowest rushing production in the last 57 years.

OFF AND RUNNING

Here's a glance at how Michigan State's ground attack fared against the NCAA's top rushing defenses in 2004:

OPPONENT	NCAA RANK	YPG ALLOWED	MSU RUSH YARDS	+/-
Wisconsin	No. 6	87.3	430	+343
Michigan	No. 3	71.6	368	+296
Iowa	No. 3	55.5	204	+149
Notre Dame	No. 6	39.0	165	+126

BALANCED GROUND GAME ROLLS UP YARDS

The Spartans featured a well-balanced ground attack in 2004, with four players gaining more than 600 yards. A trio of running backs – DeAndra Cobb, Jason Teague and Jehuu Caulcrick – combined to rush for 2,035 yards and 17 scores on 359 attempts. Cobb paced the ground attack with 728 yards on 96 carries, averaging a school-record 7.6 yards per carry, and scored four touchdowns. Teague contributed 688 yards on 150 rushes and eight TDs, while Caulcrick produced 619 yards on 113 attempts and five TDs. Quarterback Drew Stanton ranked third on the team in rushing with 687 yards on 96 carries and five TDs. Michigan State's top four rushers were separated by just 109 yards.

Three Spartans were listed among the Big Ten's leading rushers: No. 8 Stanton (68.7 yards per game), No. 9 Cobb (60.7 ypg.) and No. 10 Teague (57.3 ypg).

TURNOVERS PLAGUE SPARTANS

The Spartans ranked last in the Big Ten and near the bottom of the NCAA (No. 105) in turnover margin at -0.8 turnovers per game (-10 overall). Michigan State scored just 12 points off 14 takeaways in 2004, while its opponents converted 24 Spartan miscues into 75 points

By comparison in 2003, Michigan State had a +11 turnover margin in 13 games. The Spartans parlayed 29 takeaways into 96 points during the 2003 season.

BALL SECURITY, PART II

Michigan State committed 24 turnovers (17 interceptions, 7 fumbles) during the 2004 season. By contrast, the Spartans turned the ball over just 18 times in 13 games in 2003 – the Big Ten's fourth-lowest total (No. 15 in the NCAA). In 2003, Michigan State lost just three fumbles – the NCAA's best mark.

STANTON ADDS RUNNING DIMENSION TO SPREAD OFFENSE

Sophomore quarterback Drew Stanton ranked among the Big Ten leaders in total offense (third at 228.8 yards per game), passing efficiency (fourth with 131.8 rating), rushing (eighth at 68.7 ypg.) and passing (10th at 160.1 ypg.). In Big Ten games, he finished third in the league in total offense (238.7 ypg.), sixth in passing efficiency (125.9 rating), seventh in rushing (74.1 ypg.) and eighth in passing (164.6 ypg.).

The 6-foot-3, 225-pound Stanton completed 141-of-220 throws (.641) for 1,601 yards, eight touchdowns and six interceptions. He also ranked third on the team in rushing with 687 yards on 96 carries and five TDs. His 687 yards represent the second-best single-season rushing total by a quarterback in Spartan history. Stanton also posted the third-highest rushing average in school history, averaging 7.2 yards per carry.

MSU Single-Season Leaders Rushing Yards By A Quarterback

RANK	PLAYER (YEAR)	CARRIES-YARDS	RUSHING TDS
1.	Charlie Baggett (1974)	137-748	11
2.	Drew Stanton (2004)	96-687	5
3.	Charlie Baggett (1975)	171-645	7
4.	Mark Niesen (1972)	105-467	4
5.	Jimmy Raye (1966)	122-436	5

He shared Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors after accounting for 406 total yards in the season finale against Hawaii – the second-best single-game total in Spartan history. Stanton completed 22-of-32 throws (.688) for a career-best 330 yards and rushed for 76 yards on 12 carries.

Stanton split Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors after accounting for a school-record 410 total yards in MSU's 51-17 victory over No. 19 Minnesota. He became the first quarterback in Spartan history to pass for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game. His 410 total yards broke the single-game mark previously held by Jeff Smoker, who produced 393 total yards vs. Fresno State in the 2001 Silicon Valley Football Classic. Stanton completed 20-of-31 throws for 308 yards and three TDs. He also recorded his second 100-yard rushing game of the season, gaining 102 yards on 13 attempts.

He accounted for 254 combined yards (rushing, passing and receiving) and four TDs to lead MSU to a 38-25 victory over Illinois. Stanton completed 21-of-28 throws (.750) for 199 yards and three scores against the Illini. He also scored on an 18-yard pass from Jerramy Scott.

Stanton threw for 245 yards vs. Iowa, setting personal bests for pass attempts (54) and completions (29).

He accounted for 306 total yards and two scores in his first collegiate start at Indiana as the Spartans rallied from a 13-point halftime deficit to post a 30-20 victory in the Big Ten opener. Stanton rushed for 134 yards on 12 carries vs. Indiana to become the first Spartan quarterback to record a 100-yard rushing game since Charlie Baggett gained 120 yards vs. Northwestern in 1975.

STANTON SPREADS THE BALL AROUND

A key to Drew Stanton's throwing success in 2004 was his ability to utilize all of the weapons at his disposal in Michigan State's spread offense. Eight Spartans had at least 15 receptions, including six wide outs, one running back and one tight end. Six players had a least 20 catches: Jerramy Scott (39 for 444 yards), Matt Trannon (36 for 405), Agim Shabaj (29 for 308), Jason Teague (28 for 219), Kyle Brown (23 for 302) and Terry Love (21 for 258).

STANLEY CRACKS MSU'S ALL-TIME TOP 10 IN TACKLES

Senior linebacker Ronald Stanley led the Spartans in tackles (125 total) and production points (192) and ranked second in tackles for losses (9 for 33 yards). Stanley reached the 100-tackle milestone each of the last two seasons (2003-04).

With seven stops in the season finale vs. Hawaii, Stanley moved into sixth place on MSU's all-time list with 368 career tackles.

The Saginaw, Mich., native posted double figures in tackles six times in 2004, including a career-best 20 stops in the season opener at Rutgers. He produced double figures in tackles in back-to-back games vs. Michigan (13) and Ohio State (16). The 6-foot, 234-pound Stanley registered 12 tackles each vs. Penn State and Indiana. He became only the 14th player in Spartan history to reach the 300-tackle milestone, recording 12 stops vs. Illinois.

Stanley reached double figures in tackles 14 times during his four-year career.

RAYNER KICKS HIS WAY INTO THE RECORD BOOK

Senior Dave Rayner ranks as MSU's all-time leader in scoring (334 career points), field goals (62 made) and extra points (148 made).

The 6-foot-2, 209-pound Rayner led the Big Ten in scoring with 105 points, converting 22-of-31 field-goal attempts (.710) and all 39 extra-point tries in 2004. His 22 field goals ranked fourth in the NCAA and matched his own MSU single-season record. Rayner kicked extremely well down the stretch, hitting 13 of his last 17 field-goal attempts (.765) over the last six games. He also converted his last 76 extra-point attempts in a row.

For the second year in a row, Rayner was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top placekicker by the Palm Beach County (Fla.) Sports Commission.

MANY HAPPY SPARTAN RETURNS

Michigan State's special teams produced three touchdowns in 2004, including two scores resulting from blocked punts and one kickoff return.

Midway through the first quarter vs. Wisconsin, Marshall Campbell blocked Ken DeBauche's punt that Travis Key recovered at the goal line for a score that gave the Spartans a 14-7 lead.

The special teams accounted for two scores in a 31-24 loss to Notre Dame. Early in the first quarter, Campbell blocked D.J. Fitzpatrick's punt that Jerramy Scott recovered in the back of the end zone for a score. Late in the third quarter, DeAndra Cobb returned his fourth career kickoff for a TD, an 89-yarder.

Campbell was credited with a Spartan single-season record three blocked punts, with one coming against Notre Dame, Michigan and Wisconsin.

GAME 1 VS. RUTGERS

SEPT. 4, 2004 | PISCATAWAY, N.J. | RUTGERS STADIUM | ATT: 42,612(C)

MICHIGAN STATE	0	7	0	7	14
RUTGERS	0	6	13	0	19

Jeremy Ito kicked four field goals and Ryan Neill returned an interception 31 yards to lead Rutgers to a 19-14 victory over Michigan State before a record crowd of 42,612 in Rutgers Stadium. After misfiring on field-goal attempts from 29 and 56 yards in the first quarter, Ito finished off a 15-play, 86-yard drive by converting from 24 yards as the Scarlet Knights jumped out to a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter. Michigan State's next series ended with a lost fumble but Sir Darean Adams blocked Ito's 24-yard field-goal try. Jason Teague's 46-yard run to the RU 6 set up MSU's first score. Two plays later, Matt Trannon scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 9-yard toss from Damon Dowdell as the Spartans took a 7-3 lead with 9:55 left in the second quarter. The Scarlet Knights answered on the next series with an 11-play, 41-yard drive and pulled to within 7-6 on Ito's 47-yarder with 5:08 to play in the first half. Rutgers scored on its first possession of the second half as a 10-play, 51-yard drive resulted in Ito's 23-yard field goal as the Scarlet Knights took the lead for good at 9-7. Late in the third quarter, Neill intercepted Dowdell's screen pass and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown as Rutgers built a 16-7 advantage. Rutgers extended its lead to 19-7 on Ito's fourth field goal, a 42-yarder, with 41 seconds left in the third quarter. Michigan State's offense came to life early in the fourth quarter as Dowdell hooked up with Eric Knott for a 54-yard scoring play to cut the deficit to 19-14 with 12:41 remaining. The Spartans put together a nine-play, 51-yard drive in the closing minutes but failed to convert on fourth-and-6 from the RU 25 with 1:07 on the clock. Rutgers outgained Michigan State in total yards, 415-360, while running 23 more plays from scrimmage. The Scarlet Knights also held a better than 2-to-1 margin in time of possession, 40:14-19:46. It marked the first time in recorded history that the Spartans had possessed the football for less than 20 minutes in a game (Since the NCAA began tracking time of possession in its game summaries in 1981). Rutgers fullback Brian Leonard accounted for 190 all-purpose yards (150 rushing and 40 receiving).

CHESTER BREWER

MSU RECORD: 58-23-7

This Owosso, Mich., native revolutionized MAC's football program during his first of three stints as Aggie coach. Chester Brewer was a four-sport star at Wisconsin, earning All-Western honors in football. A defensive genius, Aggie teams posted shutouts in 49 of the 88 games Brewer coached. His greatest efforts included a 0-0 tie against Fielding Yost's 1908 Michigan team and a 17-0 shutout over Notre Dame in 1910. Brewer, who later coached at Missouri, died in 1953 at age 77.

GEORGE GAUTHIER

MSU RECORD: 4-3-0

The first Michigan State alumnus to direct an Aggie team was George Gauthier, a quarterback under John Macklin in 1912 and '13. Though the record was only 4-3, his 1918 club produced one of the most astounding upsets in Aggie history defeating Knute Rockne's first Notre Dame team which starred a sophomore back named George Gipp. A year after leaving MAC, Gauthier assumed duties as athletic director and head coach at Ohio Wesleyan, a dual position he held for 34 years. He died in 1964 at the age of 74.

GEORGE "POTSY" CLARK

MSU RECORD: 4-6-0

George "Potsy" Clark, an All-America quarterback under the legendary Bob Zuppke at Illinois, served as MAC's coach for only one season. The Aggies had a losing record, but one of those victories was a record 109-0 rout of Olivet. Among his other stops in college coaching were at Minnesota and Butler. He also served as athletic director at Nebraska, 1945-1953. Clark is probably best known as head coach of the Detroit Lions that won the 1935 NFL title. He died in 1972 at the age of 78.

RALPH YOUNG

MSU RECORD: 18-22-1

An outstanding player for both Fielding Yost at Michigan and Amos Alonzo Stagg at Chicago, the roly-poly Ralph Young coached MAC and MSC with only moderate success. However, he brought stability to a program that badly needed it, laying the foundation on which the school's athletic structure grew. MAC nearly surprised powerful Michigan in its stadium dedication game of 1924, losing 7-0. Young, who also was a fine track and field coach, is best known for his success as State's athletic director, 1923-54. He died in 1962 at the age of 72.

HARRY KIPKE

MSU RECORD: 3-4-1

Michigan football All-American Harry Kipke directed the Spartans for only one season. A Lansing (Mich.) High School graduate, he began his coaching career with a 103-0 victory over Kalamazoo College, but highlights after that were few and far between. Kipke nearly directed State to an upset victory over his alma mater, and that performance probably enticed Michigan to hire him as its coach the very next season. He died in 1972 at the age of 73.

JIM CROWLEY

MSU RECORD: 22-8-3

Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's immortal Four Horsemen, joined Michigan State's staff as its head football coach in 1929. His arrival became the catalyst which transformed a mediocre program into a nationally-respected major power for the first time since the coaching era of John Macklin. "Sleepy Jim" produced four-straight winning seasons for the Spartans. A pair of 0-0 ties against Michigan in 1930 and '31 broke State's 14-game losing streak to the Wolverines, a span which saw UM outscore MSC by a total of 392-9. A night game loss at Georgetown spoiled the Spartans' otherwise undefeated season in 1930. He was named head coach at Fordham in 1933, becoming the architect of the "Seven Blocks of Granite." Crowley died in 1986 at the age of 83.

CHARLIE BACHMAN

MSU RECORD: 70-34-10

Charlie Bachman, another Notre Dame alumnus, succeeded Jim Crowley as head football coach at Michigan State, coming to East Lansing after a successful stint at Florida. A teammate of Knute Rockne, Bachman employed the Notre Dame system and forged 10 winning seasons in 13 years. During his second season with the Spartans in 1934, he led State to an 8-1 record, which included a 16-0 victory over Michigan, the school's first since 1915. That marked the first of four-straight wins over UM. MSC posted another 8-1 regular-season record in 1937 and received the school's first bid to a postseason bowl game, the 1938 Orange Bowl. Among Bachman's greatest Spartan players were guard Sid Wagner, State's first All-American since 1915, halfback John Pingel and fullback Jack Breslin. Bachman died in 1985 at the age of 93.

CLARENCE “BIGGIE” MUNN

MSU RECORD: 54-9-2

The most successful Spartan coach of all-time in terms of winning percentage (.857) is former Minnesota All-American Clarence “Biggie” Munn. He came to MSC directly from Syracuse where he served as head coach for only one season. Despite an inauspicious 55-0 drubbing from Michigan in his Spartan debut, Munn quickly turned things around as the team ended the 1947 campaign with a 7-2 record. Workman-like progress continued the next two seasons, but then the Spartans burst onto the national scene in 1950, finishing in the Top 10 in the final wire service polls with an 8-1 mark that included victories over third-ranked Michigan and Notre Dame. Munn compiled a 27-1 worksheet over the next three years, winning back-to-back national championships in 1951 and ’52 with identical 9-0 records. In 1952, Munn earned national Coach of the Year honors from the American Football Coaches Association after the Spartans produced wins over three ranked opponents, including No. 17 Penn State, No. 8 Purdue and No. 6 Notre Dame. MSC ran its winning streak to 28-straight games in 1953 before losing at Purdue, 6-0. In their first season of competition in the Big Ten, the Spartans grabbed a share of the 1953 league championship with a 5-1 record. MSC posted its third consecutive 9-win season in 1953, thanks to its 28-20 victory over UCLA in the 1954 Rose Bowl. In seven seasons at MSC, Munn produced 18 All-Americans, including the great two-way tackle Don Coleman. He was voted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959. About a week after his team’s Rose Bowl victory, Munn stepped down from coaching to assume the duties as MSC’s athletics director. He served in that capacity for 18 years, building the Spartans into a nationally prominent football program. In 1971, a stroke forced Munn to retire from MSC and four years later in 1975, he died at the age of 66.

HUGH DUFFY DAUGHERTY

MSU RECORD: 109-69-5

One of the most popular coaches in the history of college football was Michigan State’s personable Duffy Daugherty. An undergraduate star for Syracuse, he was a member of Biggie Munn’s staff there in 1946 when State hired Munn. Daugherty served initially as line coach at MSU, tutoring such Spartan standouts as Don Coleman and Frank Kush. Then, following State’s 1954 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA, Munn stepped in as athletic director and named Duffy as head coach. Daugherty’s ’55 club went 9-1 and received the Big Ten’s Rose Bowl bid, defeating UCLA, 17-14. His greatest teams, though, came in 1965 and ’66 when those two star-studded squads posted a cumulative record of 19-1-1 and two Big Ten championships. The only loss was a 14-12 defeat at the hands of UCLA in the 1966 Rose Bowl and the lone tie was the monumental 10-10 “Game of the Century” vs. Notre Dame in ’66. Duffy’s 1965 Spartans were a defensive juggernaut and won the No. 1 ranking in the final UPI poll. During Duffy’s 19 seasons at MSU, 29 different players earned first-team All-America honors. The list included such stars as Earl Morrall, Sherman Lewis, George Webster, Clinton Jones, Gene Washington, Bubba Smith, Brad Van Pelt and Billy Joe DuPree. Daugherty’s individual honors included National Coach of the Year laurels in both 1955 and ’65, and induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1984. Duffy died in 1987 at the age of 72, in Santa Barbara, Calif.

DENNY STOLZ

1973-75
MSU RECORD: 19-13-1

Denny Stolz, defensive coordinator under Duffy Daugherty, was the 16th man to direct Spartan football fortunes. The graduate and former head coach at Alma College started off slowly at MSU, but soon built the Spartans into a Big Ten challenger. Stolz' second club finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State in the 1974 Big Ten standings, earning him conference Coach of the Year honors. The highlight that year was an unforgettable upset victory over the top-ranked Buckeyes at Spartan Stadium. His final MSU team tied for third in the conference standings with the major accomplishment an upset victory at Notre Dame. Stolz left MSU following the 1975 season. He coached at Bowling Green State, 1977-85, and then served as head coach at San Diego State, 1986-88.

DARRYL ROGERS

MSU RECORD: 24-18-2

Darryl Rogers joined the Spartan football staff following stints at Hayward State and San Jose State in California. Like the two men who preceeded him at Michigan State, Rogers' first team struggled a bit, but he bounced back big in season number two. The Spartans, who set a conference record for offensive proficiency, finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State with a 6-1-1 Big Ten record. In 1978, MSU shared the Big Ten title with the Wolverines, earning Rogers Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. NCAA probation prohibited State from going to the Rose Bowl. Following the 1979 season, he left MSU for the head coaching position at Arizona State, 1980-84. Following his stint with the Sun Devils, Rogers signed as head coach of the Detroit Lions, 1985-88. During the 1991 season, he served as the head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. He served as the athletic director at Southern Connecticut State for 10 years, retiring in 2003.

FRANK "MUDDY" WATERS

MSU RECORD: 10-23-0

Frank "Muddy" Waters became only the second former Michigan State player to coach the Spartans. The personable coach was named head man at MSU one day before his 57th birthday, following a highly successful career at Hillsdale College and Saginaw Valley State. Waters compiled a 138-46-5 record in 20 seasons at Hillsdale (1954-73) and a 25-26-2 mark in five years at Saginaw Valley (1975-79), while building the program from scratch. Three Spartans — Ray Stachowicz, Morten Andersen and James Burroughs — won All-America honors during Muddy's tenure at MSU. Thanks to his contributions to small college football in Michigan, Waters was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000. He and his wife, Mary Lou, currently reside in East Lansing.

GEORGE PERLES

MSU RECORD: 68-67-4

Former Spartan gridder and assistant coach George Perles saw his dream of becoming head coach of the MSU football program come true when he was named to the position on Dec. 3, 1982. After posting just 10 wins in three seasons prior to his arrival, Perles helped return MSU to national prominence with two bowl appearances in his first three seasons. In 1987, Perles and the Spartans captured the Big Ten title and made the program's first Rose Bowl appearance since 1966. The Spartans topped USC, 20-17, ending the year at 9-2-1, the most victories by an MSU squad since 1966, along with a No. 8 national ranking. His efforts that season earned him Football News' Coach of the Year honors. The Rose Bowl began a string of four-straight bowl appearances which included triumphs in the 1989 Aloha and '90 John Hancock Bowls. The architect of the dominating Pittsburgh Steelers' defense during the Super Bowl years (1974-75-78-79), 50 of his players were selected in the NFL Draft, including nine first-rounders. He guided the Spartans to a Big Ten slate of 53-42-3, and to seven bowl games. (Career record reflects five 1994 wins forfeited by MSU as part of 1996 self-imposed sanctions.)

NICK SABAN

MSU RECORD: 34-24-1

Nick Saban became the 20th head football coach in MSU history on Dec. 3, 1994, following a highly successful NFL stint with the Cleveland Browns. As the Browns' defensive coordinator, he led the NFL's stingiest scoring defense in 1994 as that unit allowed the sixth-fewest points in league history. His winning ways continued at Michigan State, as he promptly became the first Spartan coach to lead his teams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, including the 1995 Independence, '96 Sun and '97 Aloha Bowls. The Spartans returned to national prominence in 1999, going 9-2, and earning a trip to the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl. Prior to the bowl game, Saban left to take the head coaching job at LSU. Saban previously coached at MSU, serving as an assistant coach from 1983-87, helping the Spartans to the 1987 Big Ten and '88 Rose Bowl championships.

MORRIS WATTS

MSU RECORD: 1-2

Michigan State veteran offensive coordinator Morris Watts served as interim head coach for the final three games of the 2002 season. Watts made his head-coaching debut on Nov. 9, 2002, and led the Spartans to a 56-21 victory at Indiana, snapping a four-game losing streak. He became the 11th head coach in school history to produce a win in his Spartan debut. Watts enjoyed three stints as MSU's offensive coordinator, holding that position for a total of 12 seasons (1986-90, 1992-94 and 1999-2002). He returned to Michigan State in 1999 following a four-year tenure as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at LSU (1995-98).

MSU RECORD: 13-12

John L. Smith became Michigan State University's 23rd head football coach on Dec. 19, 2002. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 in 2002, produced an 8-4 regular-season record in 2003 and earned Dave McClain (Big Ten) Coach of the Year honors. His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in Spartan history. Smith came to Michigan State following five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he put together a 41-21 worksheet (.661), including five straight bowl appearances and back-to-back C-USA titles in 2000-01. He posted a 16-18 ledger (.471) in three seasons at Utah State (1995-97) while leading the Aggies to consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97. His six-year mark of 53-21 (.716) at Idaho (1989-94) included five NCAA I-AA playoff appearances and five Top 20 finishes. Twelve of his 16 teams have participated in postseason play.

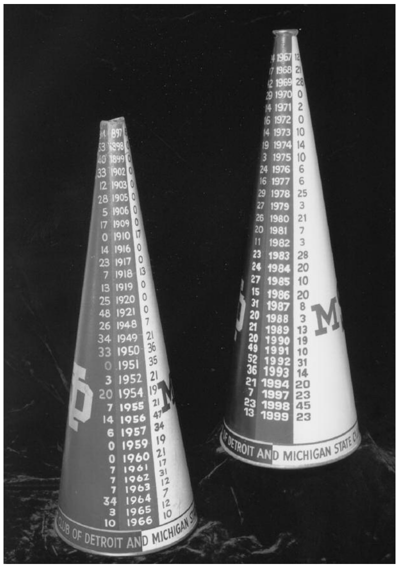
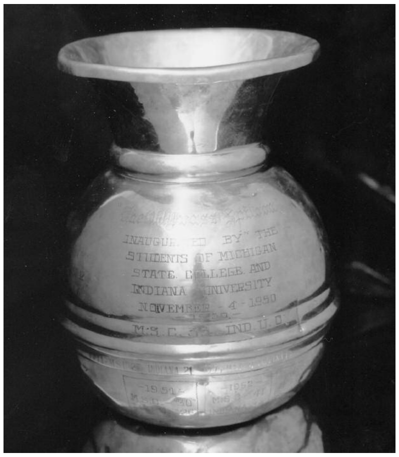
Paul Bunyan Trophy

Since 1953, the winner of the Michigan State-Michigan game has been presented the Paul Bunyan Trophy. The four-foot wooden statue was donated by then-Governor G. Mennen Williams to mark Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten. Since '53, Michigan leads the series 31-19-2. The trophy depicts the legendary giant lumberjack astride an axe with feet planted on a map of the state with flags representing the schools.



Megaphone Trophy

Since 1949, the winner of the Michigan State-Notre Dame game has been presented the Megaphone Trophy, sponsored jointly by the Detroit alumni clubs of both schools. The megaphone is printed half blue, with a gold ND monogram, and half white, with a green MSC. All previous game scores are listed on the trophy. Michigan State and Notre Dame played 36 consecutive seasons from 1959-94 until the two-year interruption of the series in 1995-96. The current series contract runs through the 2011 season.



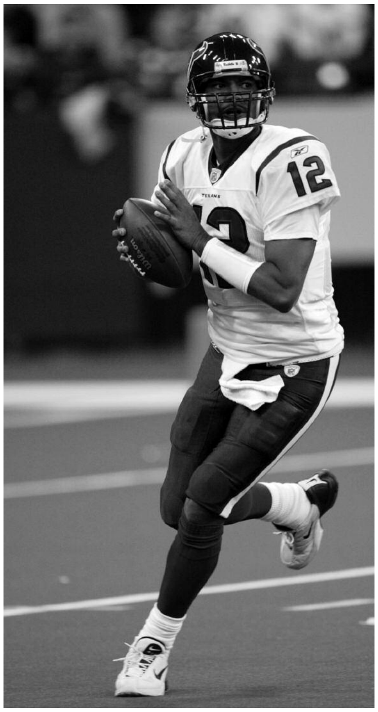
Old Brass Spittoon

Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and the MSU student council at Michigan State, and soon accepted by the IU Student Senate. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 150 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded Indiana in 1820 and MAC in 1855. Since '50, Michigan State leads the series 37-11-1.

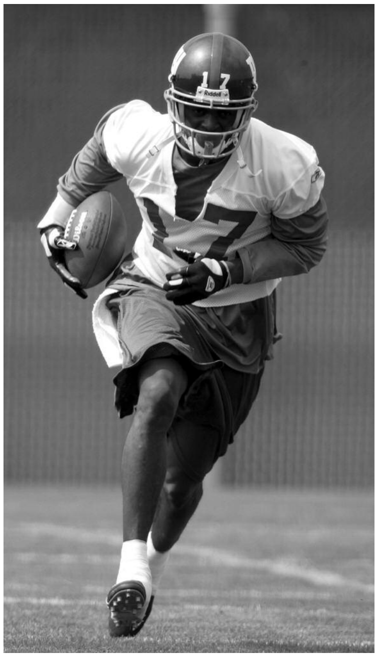
Land-Grant Trophy

Since the renewal of the series in 1993, the winner of the Michigan State-Penn State game has been presented the Land-Grant Trophy. The trophy honors the two universities' unique places in history as the two pioneer land-grant schools in the nation. Each institution was founded in 1855, Michigan State on Feb. 12 and Penn State on Feb. 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned. The trophy features pictures of campus landmarks, Michigan State's Beaumont Tower and Penn State's Old Main, plus replicas of the Spartan and Nittany Lion. Since 1993, Penn State leads the series 9-3.

Flozell Adams, who has started 101 consecutive games for the Dallas Cowboys, earned his second Pro Bowl appearance in 2005.



Tony Banks, now in his fourth year with the Houston Texans, has thrown for 15,142 yards and 76 touchdowns in nine NFL seasons.



Plaxico Burress, who caught 261 passes for 4,164 yards (16.0 avg.) and 22 touchdowns in five seasons in Pittsburgh, signed as an unrestricted free agent with the New York Giants in 2005.

DeAndra Cobb, who averaged a school-record 7.6 yards per carry as a senior, was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the sixth round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

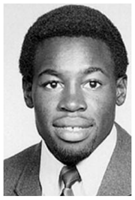
OT | 6-7 | 330
BELLWOOD, IL

Flozell Adams captured first-team All-America recognition as picked by the Walter Camp Foundation as a senior in 1997. The '97 Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, Adams started all 12 games at left tackle and helped the Spartans to a No. 24 spot nationally in rushing offense (199.5 ypg.). He also opened holes for MSU running backs who tallied 100 or more yards seven times during the season. At 6-foot-7, 330 pounds, Adams allowed only two sacks and recorded 37 pancakes. He was drafted in the second round by the Dallas Cowboys in the 1998 NFL Draft.



ERIC ALLEN #24
TB | 5-9 | 161
GEORGETOWN, SC

Eric Allen brought home All-America honors his senior year in 1971 as chosen by the American Football Coaches Association. Allen rushed for a Big Ten-leading 1,494 yards in overall action, an MSU seasonal record that stood until 1985. In addition, Allen's 1,283 yards on the ground in league contests established a Big Ten mark, as did his 110 points, making him the first player in Big Ten history to crack the century mark. Allen broke two NCAA records, four Big Ten marks and nine MSU records in '71. His greatest game came against Purdue when he rushed for an NCAA-record 350 yards on 29 carries, a record that stood until 1978. Named the Big Ten's MVP in '71, he rushed for 100 or more yards on seven occasions and his 18 TDs represented school and Big Ten records. Career-wise, he finished as MSU's all-time leader in rushing attempts (521) and rushing yards (2,654). Drafted by the Baltimore Colts in the fourth round of the 1972 NFL Draft, he signed with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

He was MSU's leading scorer with 73 points on 28 PATs and 15 field goals (20 att.). He set a school and Big Ten record when he drilled a 63-yard field goal against Ohio State. In addition, opponents returned just 17 of his 56 kickoffs. Andersen closed out his college career ranked No. 1 on the MSU and Big Ten lists in field goals with 45 while holding down the top spot on the school's all-time chart in PATs (126) and total points (261). He recorded seven field goals of 50 or more yards and three others of 49 yards. Picked by the New Orleans Saints in the fourth round of the 1982 NFL Draft.

BOB APISA #45
FB | 6-1 | 212
HONOLULU, HI

Bob Apisa was an All-America selection as a sophomore in 1965 by Football News and his junior year in 1966 by Football News and the New York News. In '65, despite missing most of the last three games due to a knee injury, he rushed for 666 yards, then the best seasonal mark turned in by a Spartan fullback, along with nine TDs. In 1966, Apisa once again was hampered by knee problems, but rushed for 445 yards and eight six-pointers. His career-high 140 yards on the ground against Michigan in a 20-7 victory earned him UPI Back of the Week honors. He finished his career as MSU's most prolific rushing fullback with 1,343 yards in 262 attempts. A ninth-round pick of the Green Bay Packers in the '68 NFL Draft.

ED BAGDON #65
G | 5-10 | 200
DEARBORN, MI

Ed Bagdon garnered All-America status as a senior in 1949 as chosen by Look, United Press, The Sporting News, New York News, Central Press, Newspaper Enterprise Association and Tele-News. The recipient of the 1949 Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman, he was part of a group known as "Duffy's Toughies" who knocked holes in opposing defenses from his guard position for Spartan backs. He developed a peculiar, but effective, shoulder brush-type block that took tacklers out of the play, but permitted him to keep on his feet and on the move. Named team captain in 1949, he started every game during his varsity career. Following his stint at MSU, he played professionally with the Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins.

CARL BANKS #54

Named the Spartans' MVP that season, he recorded 86 tackles, despite opponents rarely running to his side of the field, while closing out his career with 279 hits. Named as college football's linebacker of the year by the Columbus Touchdown Club, he was named first-team All-Big Ten three times and was MSU's first non-kicker to be named to the all-league team more than twice. He was taken in the first round (third player overall) by the New York Giants in the '84 NFL Draft. In 1996, he was selected as a member of the MSU Centennial Super Squad as picked in a poll conducted by the Lansing State Journal.

He was a primary reason that the Green and White ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten and No. 11 nationally in both rushing defense (95.4 ypg.) and total defense (280.5 ypg.). He compiled 73 stops, high among Spartan DBs, along with three pass interceptions and three fumble recoveries. One of his pass thefts was a 35-yard return for a TD against No. 2-ranked Miami. He finished his career with 154 tackles, six interceptions and 13 pass break-ups. He was chosen in the fourth round by the Cleveland Browns in the 1990 draft.

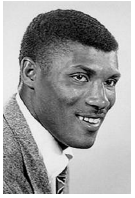
Nicknamed "The Big Bear," the 6-foot-4, 265-pounder dominated opponents with his strength. He ranked No. 2 on the club in minutes in 1961 and logged 297 minutes as a senior when he concentrated on his center position. His versatility enabled him to play tackle, guard and center during his career. Drafted in the first round by both the Buffalo Bills and the Chicago Bears, he played for the Bills from 1963-67.



LeROY BOLDEN #39
HB | 5-7 | 163
FLINT, MI

LeRoy Bolden distinguished himself as an All-American his junior season in 1953 as picked by NBC-TV. Bolden paced the squad in rushing with 691 yards and scoring with 48 points. His running helped MSU to a Rose Bowl appearance in the school's first year of Big Ten play, especially in games against Minnesota and No. 16-ranked Ohio State where he registered three TDs vs. both foes while rushing for 145 and 128 yards, respectively. An all-around performer, he was a standout in the secondary and on special teams as a returner. At the conclusion of his career, he stood No. 2 on the school's all-time list in total touchdowns (26) and total points (156).

MARK BRAMMER #91
TE | 6-4 | 225
TRAVERSE CITY, MI

Mark Brammer landed All-America honors as a junior in 1978 as selected by the Football Writers Association, the only Big Ten gridder to earn that distinction that season. He grabbed 33 aerials for 360 yards and two TDs in '78, and was a key part of MSU's most productive offense ever—ranking No. 1 in the Big Ten in passing, scoring (No. 3 nationally at 37.4 ppg.) and total offense (No. 3 nationally at 481.3 ypg.). Started every game from his sophomore through senior years. Finished his career No. 3 on the school's all-time receptions list with 107. Picked by the Buffalo Bills in the third round of the 1980 NFL Draft.

ART BRANDSTATTER #31
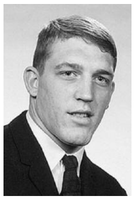
ECORSE, MI

Art Brandstatter drew All-America acclaim as a senior in 1936 as selected by the All-American Board. Brandstatter was part of a Michigan State program that compiled a 20-4-2 record during his varsity career. He was selected to the 1961 Silver Anniversary All-America Team by Sports Illustrated. One of his great moments took place in 1935 when a 59-yard run in the fourth quarter against highly-ranked Temple set up the winning TD in a 12-7 decision.



ALLEN BRENNER #86
DB | 6-1 | 194
NILES, MI

Allen Brenner was named an All-American as a senior in 1968 by the American Football Coaches and the Newspaper Enterprise Association. His final year as a Spartan saw him record 63 tackles while coming up with a team-high eight touchdown saving hits, including three vs. Notre Dame (the last one of which was a fumble-jarring hit on Notre Dame's Terry Hanratty on MSU's 2-yard line on fourth-and-goal), which preserved a 21-17 upset win. A fine two-way player, Brenner hauled in 25 pass receptions, while playing a total of 449 minutes out of 600. Named team MVP in '68, he finished his career No. 2 on MSU's all-time list in receptions (73) and receiving yards (1,232). One of two sophomore starters on the Spartans' 1966 national championship team, he set a school record (which still stands) when he returned a punt 95 yards for a TD against Illinois in his first Big Ten game. He was drafted by the New York Giants in the seventh round of the 1969 NFL Draft. In 1996, he was named to the MSU Centennial Super Squad.

ED BUDDE #79
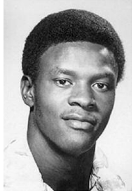
DETROIT, MI

Ed Budde was afforded All-America accolades as a senior in 1962 as picked by Time Magazine. Possessing both fine agility and speed, his blocking prowess helped MSU to a No. 2 national ranking in total rushing yardage. Following his senior year, he was the captain of the 1963 College All-Star team that defeated the Green Bay Packers. A first-round draft pick of both the Dallas Stars of the American Football League and the Philadelphia Eagles of the NFL, he enjoyed a 14-year career with the Kansas City Chiefs, earning All-Pro recognition seven times.



JAMES BURROUGHS #28
CB | 6-1 | 190
PAHOKEE, FL

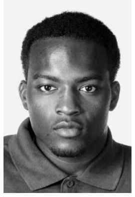
James Burroughs captured All-America honors as a senior in 1981 as picked by The Sporting News. After sitting out the 1980 season due to academic reasons, he bounced back in strong fashion to post 46 tackles while registering a then-MSU single-season record of 13 pass break-ups. Burroughs was part of a Spartan defense that ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten in pass defense in 1981. He was a first-team All-Big Ten choice as picked by the league's coaches in 1981. He finished his collegiate career with 119 tackles and held the school record for pass break-ups with 28. Picked in the third round by Buffalo in the 1982 NFL Draft.

ROBERT CAREY #88
E | 6-5 | 215
CHARLEVOIX, MI

A great all-around athlete, Robert Carey was selected as an All-American as a senior in 1951 by the Associated Press, United Press, The Sporting News, Newspaper Enterprise Association, New York News and the All-American Board. MSU's leading receiver for three-straight years, he hauled in 20 aerials for 263 yards and three TDs in '51. Career-wise, he finished with 65 receptions for 1,074 yards and 14 TDs, with all three totals representing then school career records. In MSU's 24-20 come-from-behind win at Ohio State, Carey caught four passes for 50 yards, converted three PATs and made a 24-yard field goal. Against Colorado, in his final collegiate game, he caught five passes for 104 yards and two touchdowns in a 45-7 win. He is just one of 10 athletes in the history of MSU to have earned nine varsity letters. He played professionally with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears. In 1996, he was named to MSU's Centennial Super Squad (Pre-Big Ten Era).

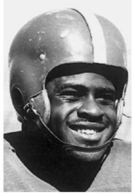
LYNN CHANDNOIS #14
HB | 6-2 | 195
FLINT, MI

Lynn Chandnois was an All-America pick as a senior in 1949 as chosen by the International News Service, United Press, Central Press, Football News and Collier's. One of the great two-way performers of his day, Chandnois rushed for a school-record 885 yards on 129 carries. Chandnois also intercepted seven enemy pass attempts, returning those thefts a total of 183 yards (tops in the nation). He paced the club in scoring with 60 points and rushed for over 100 yards in four contests that season, including a career-high 163 yards against Arizona. In the 75-0 win over the Wildcats, he sprinted 90 yards for a TD, still the longest rushing play in Spartan history. He played 55 minutes or better in six games while going all 60 in two outings. He closed out his career in the No. 1 spot in a variety of career categories at MSU, including rushing with 2,093 yards, total touchdowns with 31 (currently No. 4) and in points with 186. His 20 career interceptions are still the all-time MSU standard as is his 384 pass interception return yards. A No. 1 pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers, he played with that franchise until 1957.



DEANDRA COBB #21
KR | 5-10 | 186
LAS VEGAS, NV

DeAndra Cobb, a first-team All-America selection by Collegefootballnews.com, led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 in the NCAA in kickoff returns with his 27.2-yard average in 2003. His 763 kickoff return yards rank fourth on Michigan State's single-season chart. Cobb returned five kickoffs for 167 yards (33.4 avg.) vs. Ohio State, including a 93-yard runback for a touchdown in the third quarter. It marked the first kickoff return for a TD allowed by the Buckeyes since 1984 when Michigan State's Larry Jackson returned a kick 93 yards. Cobb set a Spartan single-season record with his third runback for a score, breaking the mark (two TDs) previously shared by Herb Haygood (2001), Derrick Mason (1995) and Derek Hughes (1979). His three kickoff returns for TDs also tied the NCAA I-A single-season record shared by Texas A&M's Leeland McElroy (1993), New Mexico's Terance Mathis (1989), Tennessee's Willie Gault (1980), Southern Cal's Anthony Davis (1974), Purdue's Stan Brown (1970) and San Francisco's Forrest Hall (1946). The 5-foot-10, 186-pound Cobb also scored on kickoff returns of 100 yards vs. Minnesota and 94 yards vs. Rutgers. His 100-yard runback against Minnesota tied the Spartan record for longest return (Herb Haygood vs. Iowa, 2001; Derrick Mason vs. LSU, 1995, and Penn State, 1994; and Derek Hughes vs. Oregon, 1979). In two seasons (2003-04), Cobb returned 64 kickoffs for 1,632 yards and four TDs. His career 25.5-yard kickoff return average ranks sixth on the Big Ten's all-time list. He was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the sixth round of the 2005 NFL Draft.



DON COLEMAN #78
T | 5-10 | 185
FLINT, MI

Don Coleman was MSU's first unanimous All-American as a senior in 1951 as picked by the Associated Press, United Press, Collier's, Look, The Sporting News, New York News, Football News, Newspaper Enterprise Association, All-American Board, International News Service, Chicago Tribune Players and Central Press. Although just 185 pounds, Coleman used his quickness and technique to become a devastating blocker. The squad's MVP in '51, he finished runner-up to Jim Weatherall (Oklahoma) in the voting for the Outland Trophy. Known as the "60-minute man," Coleman stood out on defense and special teams. Against Penn State, he made every tackle on MSU's kickoffs and punts. Against Michigan, he made eight key blocks which enabled teammates to go for long gains. Coleman became the first Spartan player ever to have his jersey retired (No. 78) and was called by former head coach Biggie Munn "the finest lineman ever to play for Michigan State." Linebacker Rob Fredrickson, who registered 281 career tackles and five interceptions, received Academic All-Big Ten honors four years in a row from 1990-93.

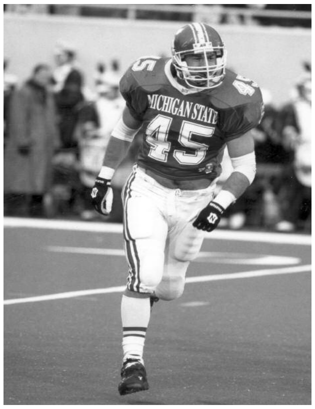
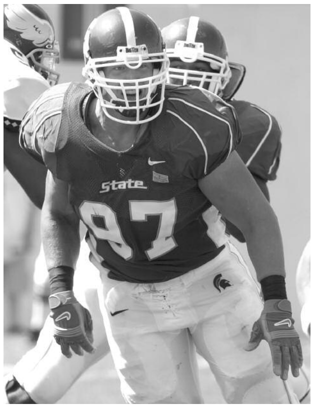
Wide receiver Mill Coleman, who earned Academic All-Big Ten honors for four-straight seasons, accounted for 2,815 career all-purpose yards and 12 touchdowns.

Offensive lineman Toby Heaton, a four-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, made 30 career starts.



Garett Gould, a three-year starter at fullback, was named to the Academic All-Big Ten Team four times.



Four-time Academic All-Big Ten selection Kyle Rasmussen started 35 games at defensive tackle and recorded 146 career stops.

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

Only three jersey numbers have been retired in the 105-year history of Michigan State football – No. 78 worn by All-America tackle Don Coleman, No. 90 worn by All-America roverback George Webster and No. 46 in honor of former MSU President John Hannah.

Spartan head coach Biggie Munn (1947-53) pulled Coleman's No. 78 out of circulation in 1952. Munn called Coleman, a consensus All-American in 1951, "the finest lineman ever to play for Michigan State." Coleman was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

Webster, a two-time All-American, had his No. 90 retired by head coach Duffy Daugherty in 1967. "George Webster is not only the finest football player I've ever seen but he symbolizes our great 1965 and '66 teams." Webster was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

Daugherty retired the No. 46 in 1969 as a tribute to Dr. Hannah, who stepped down after 46 years of service to the University including 28 years as its president (1941-69). Hannah championed Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten Conference in 1949. Former Spartan head coach and athletics director George Perles said, "John Hannah is the greatest legend in the history of Michigan State. He is the person who made MSU the great school it is today."

The fourth annual Orange Bowl game wasn't nearly as close as the final score might indicate as Auburn dominated play on both sides of the football in recording a shutout victory, 6-0, over Michigan State. It still ranks as the lowest-scoring game in Orange Bowl history. Auburn wasted two scoring opportunities in the first quarter. Jimmy Fenton's 25-yard run gave the Tigers a first-and-10 at the MSU 12 but the Spartan defense responded by stuffing three-straight running plays and Lyle Rockenbach broke up Fenton's fourth-down pass. Tom McShannock's interception and 29-yard return ended Auburn's second scoring threat. The game's only touchdown came in the second quarter and it was set up by George Kenmore's 28-yard pass to Ralph O'Gwynne to the MSU 2. Auburn fullback Pel Sitz netted only 1 yard on three carries before O'Gwynne scored on a 1-yard run around left end on fourth-and-goal. The Tigers had several chances in the second half to break the game open. Auburn turned the ball over on downs at the MSU 16 in the third quarter after Dutch Heath's 12-yard interception return to the MSU 24. Michigan State failed to record a first down until late in the third quarter when Ed Pearce broke a 29-yard run. Auburn drove inside the MSU 30 twice in the fourth quarter but failed to put points on the scoreboard. The Spartans' only other first down came on a 23-yard pass from John Pingel to Usif Haney midway through the fourth quarter. Auburn outgained Michigan State in total yards, 278-67. Fenton and Speck Kelly combined for 137 of the Tigers' 197 rushing yards, gaining 76 and 61 yards, respectively. Auburn held Pingel, MSU's All-America halfback, to 12 yards rushing on seven carries. A sellout crowd of nearly 19,000 attended the game at Miami's brand-new $360,000 Roddy Burdine Stadium.

Billy Wells ran for one touchdown and returned a punt for another score to lead No. 3 Michigan State to a 28-20 victory over No. 5 UCLA in the 1954 Rose Bowl. UCLA jumped out to a 14-0 lead, capitalizing on two Spartan turnovers. Midway through the first quarter, Jim Salsbury recovered a fumble on the MSU 37 and six plays later, Paul Cameron hit Bill Stits with a 13-yard TD strike to give the Bruins a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Hardiman Cureton and Bob Long combined to sack Spartan QB Earl Morrall, who fumbled, and Cureton fell on it at the MSU 18. Seven plays later, Cameron scored on a 2-yard run off left tackle. The momentum changed midway through the second quarter when Ellis Duckett blocked Cameron's punt from the UCLA 25 and returned it 6 yards for a touchdown as the Spartans cut the deficit to 14-7 at halftime. The Spartans dominated play in the third quarter. Michigan State took the second-half kickoff and drove 78 yards in 14 plays with LeRoy Bolden scoring on a 1-yard dive to tie the game at 14. Wells capped a 10-play, 73-yard drive with a 2-yard TD run to give the Spartans their first lead at 21-14 late in the third quarter. Early in the fourth quarter, UCLA forced another fumble and Jack Ellena recovered it at the MSU 24. Two plays later, Cameron hit Rommie Loudd with a 28-yard TD toss but Cameron's conversion attempt sailed wide and the Bruins still trailed 21-20. Michigan State iced the game when Wells returned Cameron's punt 62 yards for a touchdown with 4:51 left in the fourth quarter. Wells led a well-balanced Spartan running attack, picking up 80 yards on 14 carries.

Dave Kaiser converted his first career field-goal attempt, a 41-yarder with :07 left, to give No. 2 Michigan State a 17-14 win over No. 4 UCLA in the 1956 Rose Bowl. Michigan State found itself in an early hole as Earl Morrall's pass on the first play from scrimmage was intercepted by Jim Decker and returned 4 yards to the MSU 16. Four plays later, Bob Davenport scored on a 2-yard run over left guard to give the Bruins a 7-0 lead with 11:48 left in the first quarter. Midway through the second quarter, Michigan State put together an 11-play, 80-yard drive to pull even at 7. Walt Kowalczyk's 30-yard run to the UCLA 17 set up Morrall's 13-yard touchdown toss to Clarence Peaks. On the second play of the fourth quarter, the Spartans took their first lead at 14-7 on Peaks' 67-yard TD pass to John Lewis, who caught the ball on the 50 and took it the distance. Wishbone quarterback Nate Sassaman rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries to lead Army, making its first-ever bowl appearance, to a 10-6 triumph over Michigan State in the 1984 Cherry Bowl. Michigan State had an early scoring chance after Phil Parker intercepted a rare Army pass and returned it 18 yards to the Cadet 43. Three plays netted only 8 yards and Ralf Mojsiejenko's 52-yard field-goal attempt missed wide left. The Spartans put together a nine-play, 58-yard drive but early in the second quarter on third-and-goal from the Army 5, Dave Yarema's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Kermit McKelvy. A Michigan State fumble near midfield led to Army's only touchdown. Cadet Clarence Jones capped off an eight-play, 46-yard drive with a 4-yard run off right tackle to give Army a 7-0 lead with 6:41 left in the first half. Early in the third quarter, Sassaman rushed eight times for 37 yards during a 14-play, 49-yard drive, but Craig Stopa's 32-yard field-goal try went wide right. Army converted a Spartan fumble into a field goal and a 10-0 lead in the fourth quarter as a 15-play, 59-yard drive produced a 38-yard field goal by Stopa with 8:40 remaining. A Cadet fumble gave Michigan State life as Tom Allan recovered the ball at the MSU 49. Three plays later, Yarema found Bob Wasczenski in the left corner of the end zone with a 36-yard TD strike. The two-point pass attempt failed and Michigan State trailed 10-6 with 4:19 left. Army gained 256 yards rushing on 71 attempts while controlling the clock for 34:05. The Cadets sacked Yarema six times and picked off three of his passes, including two by Doug Pavek.

Courtney Hawkins accounted for 216 all-purpose yards and caught a touchdown pass to lead No. 22 Michigan State to a 17-16 win over No. 21 Southern Cal in the 1990 Sun Bowl. MSU dodged a bullet early as Mike Iaquaniello intercepted a Todd Marinovich pass in the end zone on USC's first series. Late in the first quarter, the Trojans put together an eight-play, 60-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead on Marinovich's 7-yard pass to Gary Wellman. After a Spartan fumble, USC was again knocking on the door, but on a fourth-and-inches play from inside the MSU 1, Marinovich mishandled the snap from center and Alan Haller recovered the fumble in the end zone for a touchback. MSU took advantage of the turnover and Hyland Hickson capped a 10-play, 80-yard drive with an 18-yard TD run with 2:22 left in the first half. USC opened the second half with an 18-play, 80-yard drive that lasted nine minutes but it had to settle for a 20-yard field goal from Quin Rodriguez. The Spartans responded by scoring 10-straight points. On a third-and-13 play from the MSU 26, Dan Enos hit Hawkins on a post pattern for a 41-yard gain and a first down at the USC 33. Four plays later, Hawkins scored on a 21-yard pass from Enos that gave MSU its first lead at 14-10. Freddie Wilson's interception at the USC 34 late in the third quarter led to a 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh as the Spartans built a 17-10 advantage. The Trojans got field goals of 54 and 43 yards from Rodriguez in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 17-16. MSU iced the game with two rushing first downs in the final three minutes. Hawkins caught six passes for 106 yards and a score to earn Sun Bowl MVP honors. Enos connected on nine-of-17 throws for 131 yards, including eight-straight completions during one stretch.

Jeff Brohm completed 19-of-29 passes for 197 yards and a touchdown to lead Louisville to an 18-7 win over Michigan State in the 1993 Liberty Bowl. Michigan State's only touchdown came on the game's first series. The Spartans took the opening kickoff and drove 79 yards in 11 plays with Duane Goulbourne twisting into the end zone on a 1-yard run over left guard. Spartan QB Jim Miller started with a hot hand, hitting all four pass attempts for 50 yards on the first series. Louisville also scored on its first possession as an eight-play, 56-yard march ended with David Akers' 31-yard field goal. Midway through the second quarter, the Spartans missed out on a scoring chance when Bill Stoyanovich misfired on a 31-yard field-goal attempt. Louisville put together a 14-play, 74-yard drive in the third quarter, but failed to put points on the scoreboard as Akers missed a 23-yard field-goal try. Brohm directed a seven-play, 59-yard drive for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, hitting Reggie Ferguson on a crossing pattern for a 25-yard TD pass. A 24-yard interception return by Darius Watson gave Louisville the ball back at the MSU 33 but seven plays later, the Spartan defense stopped Anthony Shelman short of the goal line on fourth-and-1. The Cardinals got two points back on the next play as Joe Johnson and Tyrus McCloud tackled Spartan tailback Craig Thomas in his own end zone for a safety. Louisville iced the game with a seven-play, 54-yard drive as Ralph Dawkins scored on an 11-yard sweep around right end.

Paul Edinger kicked a 39-yard field goal as time expired to give No. 9 Michigan State a 37-34 victory over No. 10 Florida in the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl. It marked Michigan State's first New Year's Day bowl victory since the 1988 Rose Bowl and it ended a four-game losing streak in postseason play. There were five lead changes in the contest. The Spartans opened the scoring as an eight-play, 36-yard drive resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Edinger. Florida took a 7-3 lead as Travis Taylor scored on a 12-yard toss from Doug Johnson. Michigan State jumped out to a 17-7 lead in the second quarter on Bill Burke's 37-yard TD strike to Plaxico Burress and a 24-yard fumble return by T.J. Turner. The Gators pulled to within 17-14 on Johnson's 8-yard TD pass to Taylor. Edinger's second field goal, a 20-yarder, gave the Spartans a 20-14 lead, but Johnson scored on a 1-yard sneak to put Florida ahead at the half, 21-20. Jeff Smoker threw for a career-high 376 yards and three touchdowns, including two scoring strikes to Charles Rogers, to lead Michigan State to a 44-35 victory over No. 20 Fresno State in the 2001 Silicon Valley Football Classic. It took Fresno State 59 seconds to put its first touchdown on the scoreboard, a 5-yard TD toss from David Carr to Stephen Spach. MSU tied the game at 7 on Smoker's 72-yard bomb to Rogers with 6:16 left in the first quarter. The Spartans scored again 22 seconds later to take a 14-7 lead as Monquiz Wedlow recovered a mishandled snap in the end zone. The Bulldogs pulled even at 14 on Carr's 36-yard TD pass to Rodney Wright. MSU built a 24-14 lead on Dave Rayner's 41-yard field goal and T.J. Duckett's 5-yard TD run. Fresno State cut its deficit to 24-21 as Carr again hooked up with Wright, this time for a 79-yard scoring play. MSU responded by scoring 13-straight points to build a 37-21 halftime lead, thanks to Duckett's 39-yard TD run and Smoker's 69-yard TD throw to Rogers. Midway through the third quarter, Fresno State cut its deficit to 37-28 on a 2-yard TD run by Paris Gaines. A blocked punt set up Fresno State's final score, a 15-yard screen pass from Carr to Gaines, as the Bulldogs rallied to within two at 37-35 with 6:04 remaining. The Spartans clinched the game with a seven-play, 77-yard drive that resulted in Smoker's third TD pass, a 5-yard toss to Ivory McCoy with 1:59 left.

Cory Ross rushed for a career-high 138 yards and two scores to lead No. 22 Nebraska to a 17-3 victory over Michigan State in the 2003 MasterCard Alamo Bowl. Ross carried the ball seven times for 37 yards on Nebraska's opening drive to set up David Dyches' 29-yard field goal as the Cornhuskers took a 3-0 lead with 8:19 left in the first quarter. Michigan State answered with a 10-play, 48-yard drive, with Jeff Smoker completing five-of-six passes for 43 yards, and pulled even on a 46-yard field goal by Dave Rayner with 3:53 remaining in the first quarter. Jammal Lord's 58-yard completion to Isaiah Fluellen early in the second quarter gave the Cornhuskers first-and-goal at the MSU 6. Two plays later, Ross scored on a 2-yard run as Nebraska jumped out to a 10-3 lead with 13:17 left in the first half. Late in the second quarter, Lord broke free for a 66-yard gain to the MSU 14. Two plays later, Ross raced 6 yards for a touchdown as the Cornhuskers built a 17-3 lead with 3:20 to play in the first half. The Spartan defense bounced back in the second half, allowing only 106 total yards while holding Nebraska scoreless. Michigan State's offense came to life midway through the fourth quarter. Smoker completed five-straight passes for 39 yards and Tyrell Dortch gained 16 yards on two running plays as the Spartans marched to the Cornhusker 17. After a personal-foul penalty pushed the Spartans back 15 yards, Pat Ricketts ended the scoring threat when he picked off Smoker's throw intended for Aaron Alexander at the Nebraska 24. The Cornhuskers limited Michigan State to a season-low 174 total yards – nearly 210 yards below its season average. Nebraska sacked Smoker five times for 37 yards and forced three interceptions.

PRESIDENT
LOU ANNA KIMSEY SIMON

Lou Anna Kimsey Simon became the twentieth president of Michigan State University on January 1, 2005, after serving as provost and vice president for academic affairs since 1993.

At the time of her appointment as provost, she was one of only 11 women to hold the position of chief academic officer among the 62 leading research institutions that compose the Association of American Universities (AAU). Currently, Simon is one of nine women holding, among these AAU institutions, the position of chief executive officer.

In May 2003, the MSU Board of Trustees appointed Simon as interim president. She served in the dual role of interim president and provost through September 2003. Since 1999, Simon has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC), an academic consortium of 12 major teaching and research universities in the Midwest. She was elected CIC chairperson in 2000 and served until she became president of MSU.

Simon has a distinguished history at MSU. In 1974, after earning her doctorate in administration and higher education, she became a faculty member in the College of Education and assistant director of the Office of Institutional Research. The graduate seminars she taught inspired students to engage with important and timely issues in higher education. In the eighties, she served as an assistant provost and in the early nineties as the associate provost.

While serving as provost, Simon continued her collaboration with faculty colleagues and co-edited two books. The more recent book focuses on civil society and service learning. Her other scholarly presentations and publications demonstrate her ongoing commitment to the promotion of university outreach ventures, especially those related to serving youth and families.

She is a committed supporter of and participant in academic governance that provides for fundamental faculty and student involvement in the deliberations of departments, schools, and colleges, and at the all-university level. She understands and supports the essential role of diversity in all areas and endeavors of MSU, on-campus, off-campus, and abroad.

With her extensive administrative experience, development activities, and leadership in innovative initiatives across the mission as provost, Simon was responsible for the full range of academic and academic support programs at MSU.

She is regarded nationally as a powerful advocate of a research-active, student-centered university that is an engaged partner with society in the land-grant tradition. Simon will continue this advocacy during her presidency. Her passion is to form partnerships in the spirit of “Team MSU”—working tirelessly to keep Michigan State University on the path of relevance and excellence. “Team Simon”—President Simon and her spouse, Roy J. Simon (Ph.D., higher education, 1979), director, Telecommunication Systems and Transportation Services—looks forward to building new successes with MSU faculty, staff, students, alumni, and friends around the world.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR RON MASON

Ron Mason was introduced as the 16th athletics director in Michigan State history on Jan. 28, 2002, and assumed the leadership of the 25-sport department on July 1, 2002. Prior to moving into an administrative role, Mason spent 36 years behind the bench during which he established himself as the winningest coach in college hockey history.

A National Championship coach in 1986, Mason oversees a department that saw a school-record five teams (field hockey, men's golf, women's basketball, crew and men's soccer) capture Big Ten Conference Championships in 2004-05. The field hockey team, which won the regular-season title, advanced to its second Final Four in the last three years in November, while the men's soccer team captured its first-ever Big Ten title. The men's golf team won just its second Big Ten title in school history in May, while crew won its first-ever conference crown. Michigan State became the sixth school in NCAA history to send both its men's and women's basketball teams to the Final Four in the same year, with the women's team advancing to the national title game. In addition, the women's basketball team shared the Big Ten regular-season championship with Ohio State and won the Big Ten Tournament title for the first time in school history.

In 2003-04, 17 of the 25 sports were represented at the NCAA Championships and the football team participated in the Alamo Bowl. The men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for a seventh-straight year, while the women's basketball squad made its second-straight trek. In addition, the softball team captured the school's first-ever Big Ten Tournament Championship, while the field hockey squad won its second-straight Big Ten Championship and advanced to its third-straight NCAA Tournament. In addition, "The BasketBowl" – the MSU-Kentucky basketball game was played before a world-record crowd of 78,129 at Detroit's Ford Field on Dec. 13, 2003.

In 2002-03, 17 of MSU's 25 sports were represented at the NCAA Championships, including the field hockey team which advanced to the Final Four for the first time in school history. In addition, the men's basketball team moved on to the Elite Eight and the women's basketball and softball teams made the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1997 and 1999 seasons, respectively.

All told, during Mason's three-year tenure, State athletics squads have captured eight conference championships. In addition, MSU has been represented at the NCAA Championships 48 times, including Final Four appearances by men's basketball (2005), women's basketball (2005) and field hockey (2002 and 2004).

Mason finished his 36-year coaching career with a record of 924-380-83. In 23 years at Michigan State, he posted a 635-270-69 mark. He is the only coach in college hockey history with more than 750 victories. His career highlights include an NCAA Championship at Michigan State in 1986 and an NAIA Championship with Lake Superior State in 1972. He led MSU to 17 CCHA regular-season and playoff titles and guided 23 teams to the NCAA Tournament, an all-time record. In addition, he coached 35 All-Americans and 50 former Spartans who went onto to establish careers in the National Hockey League.

In 1966, Mason began his coaching career as the first head coach at Lake Superior State where he also served as assistant athletics director. He guided the Lakers to five NAIA Tournament appearances, including the 1972 National Championship. Three of his other teams finished as NAIA runners-up.

In 1973, he moved on to Bowling Green, establishing the Falcons as a national hockey power. In six seasons, he led Bowling Green to three CCHA regular-season titles (1976, 1978, 1979) and three playoff championships (1977, 1978, 1979). His 1977-78 squad finished third in the NCAA Tournament with an impressive 31-8 record. The following season, his BGSU squad established a then-national record with 37 wins. While at BGSU, he coached two members of the 1980 U.S. Gold Medal Olympic Hockey Team – Ken Morrow and Mark Wells.

Mason's Michigan State career began with the 1979-80 season when he replaced the legendary Amo Bessone. The seven-time CCHA Coach of the Year led Michigan State to league regular-season championships in 1985, 1986, 1989, 1990, 1998, 1999 and 2001. He also guided the Spartans to CCHA playoff crowns in 1982, 1983, 1984, 1985, 1987, 1989, 1990, 1998, 2000 and 2001. In 2001, the CCHA honored Mason by renaming the CCHA playoff trophy – The Mason Cup – in his honor due to his contributions to college hockey and formation of the CCHA as well as his success behind the bench.

Among his Spartan coaching highlights are on March 12, 1993, Mason reached a personal milestone as MSU defeated Kent, 6-5, making him the winningest U.S. college hockey coach. One season later on March 18, 1994, a win over Bowling Green established him as the winningest college hockey coach in North America. In 2001-02, Mason's final campaign as the Spartan coach, he recorded his unprecedented 900th-win as a college hockey coach with a victory over Ferris State (Oct. 20, 2001).

Mason also had a first-hand perspective on one of MSU's biggest athletic endeavors, as he coached his Spartans against Michigan in front of a world-record crowd of 74,554 in an outdoor hockey game at Spartan Stadium (Oct. 6, 2001).

Mason coached MSU's only two Hobey Baker Award winners – Kip Miller in 1990 and Ryan Miller in 2001. He also coached the first college player – Joe Murphy – to be taken first overall in the NHL Draft in 1986 by the Detroit Red Wings.

Mason served on the American Hockey Association Board of Directors from 1973-1977 and is a former member of the NCAA Ice Hockey Rules Committee. He currently is a member of the NCAA Ice Hockey Committee.

He is active in a number of local organizations and charities. He is very involved with Sparrow Hospital in Lansing, where he recently completed a four-year term on the Sparrow Foundation Board and has set up the Ron Mason Fund for Kids that supports the Pediatric Rehabilitation Department, which has raised over $500,000 since 1998. He also served as the honorary chairperson for the Children's Miracle Network which has raised more than $15.4 million over 17 years, including more than $1.3 million in 2004 and has worked with the Coaches For Kids campaign, which has raised over $3.6 million in the last five years for a pediatrics emergency room at Sparrow Hospital. In addition, he is on the committee for the broomball game for the Legal Eagles, which benefits the Boys and Girls Club of Lansing; on the board of the Lansing Chamber of Commerce and spent several years on the Lansing Safety Council.

Mason received his bachelor's degree from St. Lawrence in 1964, where he lettered in hockey for three years. In 1965, he received his master's from Pittsburgh. He was presented with an honorary doctorate from Michigan State in the spring of 2001.

For all his career accomplishments, Mason has been inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (1994), Lake Superior Sports Hall of Fame (1996) and St. Lawrence Sports Hall of Fame (1999). In addition, the American Hockey Coaches Association honored him with the John MacInnes Award for his outstanding contributions to hockey in the spring of 2003, and he received the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation's 2004 "Legend of Hockey" award in April 2004.

Born Jan. 14, 1940, in Blyth, Ont., Mason and his wife, Marion, have two daughters, Tracey and Cindy. An avid fisherman, Mason also enjoys golfing.

Academic, personal, and professional support are essential to college success. At MSU, Student-Athlete Support Services helps student-athletes reach their full potential.

Our philosophy is to offer an academic support program that will assist all student-athletes with the transition to college and integrate with the total university. This all-encompassing support continues throughout the student-athlete's collegiate career, until the day he or she receives a diploma, lands a job, or enters graduate school.

Academic counseling, career exploration, planning and placement, and academic assistance through tutorial programs are just some of the ways we encourage student success.

Being proactive rather than reactive, our staff does not wait for an academic crisis to occur. We gather important background information and build an academic profile on each student-athlete, assessing his or her needs in advance. We also stay informed on the daily progress of each student-athlete.

Freshmen and transfer student-athletes encounter a major transition when making the switch from high school or community college to a university. These students, while adjusting to their new routines, receive extra attention and support.

College is not easy. But with hard work and dedication from both the student-athlete and the support staff, the student-athlete can have a successful college experience.

There are a total of 14 staff members to assist in and work with the following:

- Priority registration
- Track academic progress
- Monitoring grades
- Conduct weekly meetings with freshmen
- Conduct eligibility meetings
- Provide Learning Specialists Services

The Spartan football team was well represented at the third-annual Athletes 4 Kids overnight event at the Michigan Athletic Club. The list of participants included Bryan Brighton, Drew Stanton, Nick Smith, Jaren Hayes, Gordon Niebylski, John Mulroy, John Goss and John Masters.

Kyle Brown, David Herron Jr. and Clifton Ryan sort through presents during a wrapping party as part of the Toys & Teams program in December 2004.

Members of the Spartan football team – including Kaleb Thornhill, Joe Toth, Tom Kaczmarek and Jehuu Caulcrick – participated in the Great Dairy Adventure, held at the MSU Livestock Pavilion in July 2004.

Spartan Stadium is in its 82nd season as home to Michigan State football. Since its opening in 1923, Michigan State has won nearly 70 percent of its games played in Spartan Stadium.

Spartan Stadium represents a tribute to Michigan State's football past and a vote of confidence in its future. The $64 million expansion project, scheduled for completion prior to the start of the 2005 football season, features the addition of nearly 3,000 seats, including 24 suites and a 193-seat press box, bringing the current stadium capacity to 75,005. "The Spartan" statue has been relocated to the atrium of the new structure. The 200,000-square-foot addition also will house the MSU Alumni Association, University Development and other units. The MSU Board of Trustees approved the major addition and expansion project of Spartan Stadium in September 2003.

Here's a quick look at some Spartan Stadium construction milestones:

- Dec. 22, 2003 – Groundbreaking begins at construction site.
- May 7, 2004 – Erection of steel framework begins.
- July 30, 2004 – Topping-out ceremony held as the uppermost steel beam is lifted into place.
- Nov. 13, 2004 – Press box demolition begins just 13 hours after Michigan State concluded its 2004 home schedule against Wisconsin.
- Aug. 1, 2005 – The 20-month construction project was completed.

Barton Malow/Clark served as the construction manager for the Spartan Stadium expansion project, with HNTB providing architectural services.

Prior to the 2002 season, ESPN.com's Mel Kiper Jr. ranked Spartan Stadium No. 8 on his list of the nation's most scenic venues.

Natural grass returned to Spartan Stadium in 2002 after a 33-year absence, with the installation of a modular field. The new playing surface, planted in May of 2001 at MSU's Hancock Turfgrass Research Center, is comprised of a blend of nine varieties of Kentucky bluegrass. The original switch from natural grass to artificial turf came in time for the 1969 season.

Since 1957, capacity crowds have attended 141 games in Spartan Stadium, including the single-game record 80,401 fans who witnessed MSU's 20-19 loss to top-ranked Notre Dame on Sept. 22, 1990. Michigan State has played before a sellout crowd in 47 of its last 52 home games, including the last 39 in a row. The Spartans have ranked among the NCAA's top 20 in attendance each of the last 49 seasons, including 20th in 2004, averaging 73,602.

Michigan State fans purchased an all-time record 61,479 football season tickets in 2000. Spartan football season-ticket sales topped the 60,000 mark three straight years from 1999-2001.

A series of projects paralleling the Spartans' rise to national football prominence enlarged the steel-and-concrete facility from its original 14,000 seats in 1923 to its present size in 1957.

The first came in 1935, the year in which the stadium was officially named Macklin Field, boosting the capacity to 26,000. The 1948 enlargement raised the total to 51,000.

After 9,000 new seats upped the capacity to 60,000 in 1956, the upper decks were added to the east and west stands in 1957, bringing the capacity to 76,000. It also became Spartan Stadium that year. Renovations during the summer of 1994 improved sightlines and comfort for fans, while reducing the capacity to its current 72,027.

On Oct. 6, 2001, Spartan Stadium added another chapter to its storied history as a world-record crowd of 74,554 attended the MSU-Michigan outdoor hockey game.

Prior to the 1998 season, a Mitsubishi Diamond Vision was installed in the south end zone and a new scoreboard and black and white message board were added to the north end zone. The CRT video display measures 21 feet x 27 feet and it is operated from a digital production control room in Spartan Stadium. The video display board shows live game action, replays and special features. In addition, a concert-quality 50,000-watt sound system was installed.

In 1998, Spartan Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary plus it reached another milestone that season when it played host to its 400th game, a 29-5 MSU victory over Northwestern on Oct. 31.

With its 49-14 victory over No. 4 Wisconsin in the 2004 home finale, Michigan State recorded its 300th win in Spartan Stadium. Michigan State has compiled a 300-128-13 record (.695) since taking up residency in Spartan Stadium (formerly Macklin Field) in 1923. The Spartans have gone undefeated at home 16 times since the stadium opened, including a perfect 6-0 mark in 1999. It marked MSU's first undefeated home record since 1966 (5-0-1) and its first unbeaten and untied home slate since 1965 (5-0-0).

In addition, Michigan State has suffered only one home loss during a season 27 times. Only eight times in the history of the stadium have the Spartans experienced a losing record at home.

Michigan State's longest home winning streak is 19 games from Oct. 14, 1950, through Nov. 21, 1953.

Injuries are a part of sports - they come with the touchdowns and big tackles. Dealing with athletic injuries falls into the capable hands of the MSU Sports Medicine staff.

Located in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building, the Sports Medicine staff is comprised of a team of surgeons, doctors, certified athletic trainers and a cast of students who aspire to be the athletic trainers of the future. In its 2002 College Football Preview, Sports Illustrated rated the Duffy Daugherty training room as one of the nation's ultimate facilities.

The philosophy of the Sports Medicine staff is two-fold: to help prevent injuries as much as possible through effective preventative programs, and to facilitate an effective rehabilitation program after an injury. In all cases, the ultimate well-being of each individual is considered the top priority.

The 6,000-square-foot training room features a hydrotherapy station and a treadmill with suspension equipment, which allows student-athletes to rehab with reduced stress on their joints. The training room also includes cold-pool spas and various other therapy equipment and modalities.

The Duffy Daugherty Building, located across the street from Spartan Stadium, houses the coaching staff offices, position meeting rooms, weight room, locker room, training room, equipment room, video room and classrooms. The complex also features an 86,000-square-foot indoor practice facility.

Fund-raising efforts are currently underway as part of the university-wide capital campaign for a $9-10 million expansion project at the Duffy Daugherty Football Building. The construction plans feature an expanded weight room that will more than double in size, from 9,000 to 19,000-square feet. The expansion project also includes new position and staff meeting rooms, coaches' offices and two atriums: one housing a football museum and the other a recruiting area.

In June of 2002, AstroPlay, a new concept in synthetic turf, was installed in the indoor practice facility. The $310,000 surface is grass-like from concept to performance. Unlike previous generations of artificial turf, AstroPlay is not abrasive. The grass-like, polyethylene fiber matrix is filled with rubber granules.

The 33,000-square-foot Daugherty Building underwent a major overhaul prior to the 1997 football season. The new construction added 17,000-square-feet to the complex, now more than double its original size from its opening in 1979. Financing for the $5 million construction and renovation project was provided entirely by Stadium Club seating in Spartan Stadium.

The new amenities included state-of-the-art weight, training and locker rooms. The 9,000-square-foot weight room ranks among the largest in the Big Ten. The room is adorned with murals, 12 feet high and 24 feet wide, featuring football program highlights.

In its 2002 College Football Preview, Sports Illustrated featured Michigan State's training room as one of the nation's ultimate facilities. The 6,000-square-foot training room features a hydrotherapy station and a treadmill with suspension equipment, which allows student-athletes to rehab with reduced stress on their joints. The training room also includes cold-pool spas and various other therapy equipment and modalities.

The locker room houses wooden lockers so big that they had to be assembled on site. The Daugherty Building even includes a players' lounge, complete with a pool table and big-screen television.

TOTAL CONDITIONING APPROACH

"Total Conditioning" best describes the ultimate goal of the Spartan Strength and Conditioning Program under the direction of Ken Mannie and Tommy Hoke. The year-round approach adhered to by the Spartans addresses all of the development, speed and power improvement, flexibility and cardiorespiratory conditioning.

Michigan State football players train in an aggressive and intense manner with a high priority placed on steady progression. The weight room atmosphere emphasizes a championship work ethic, proper instruction and supervision, and safe, proven exercise techniques.

Attention is also given to the educational process regarding dietary considerations and healthy life-style habits that will benefit the players far beyond their playing days.

A NATIONALLY RESPECTED PROGRAM AND TOP MEDIA DRAW

Michigan State is a popular choice for national and regional television coverage. Since 1995, the Spartans have played in front of a television audience on 104 occasions, an average of 10 TV appearances per season. Michigan State enters the 2005 season with a streak of 27-consecutive live TV appearances (games televised regionally or nationally since November 2002).

More than 15 million people watched Spartan football games on TV in 2004. Last fall, ESPN's College GameDay made its third appearance in East Lansing, Mich., since 1997, covering just the fifth night game in Spartan Stadium history against Notre Dame. In addition, ESPN2's Cold Pizza produced four live segments from inside Spartan Stadium the day before the MSU-Notre Dame game.

Michigan State is one of the nation's most-listened-to college football teams, with the Spartan Sports Network reaching an average radio audience of 188,500 on fall Saturdays.

Michigan State's media exposure truly ranks among the nation's elite programs. Spartan football enjoys the benefit of daily coverage in Detroit, the nation's 10th-largest television market. MSU's television coverage includes two other top-ranked markets: Grand Rapids/Kalamazoo/Battle Creek (No. 38) and Flint/Saginaw/Bay City (No. 64).

It also is difficult to match Michigan State's print media coverage. Five of the nation's top 150 newspapers, based upon reported circulation, assign writers and columnists to cover the Spartan football beat, including The Detroit News/Free Press (No. 11), The Grand Rapids Press (No. 71), The Flint Journal (No. 114) and Lansing State Journal (No. 132).

Weekly press conferences are held on campus, so that the media can get its fill of Spartan notes and quotes. Nearly 300 press credentials are issued to newspaper and magazine writers plus television and radio personalities on Spartan game days.

Fans with access to the internet keep up to date with Spartan football by visiting the official Michigan State athletics web site at www.msuspartans.com. The recently redesigned web site features a wealth of information on MSU football, including game results and stats, media guide contents, weekly press releases, player features, photo galleries and video highlight clips plus live radio broadcasts and live in-game statistics. The web site averaged 1.7 million page views per month in 2004-05, including more than 172,000 unique visitors per month.

Big Plays, Big Hits Highlight Final Spring Football Scrimmage

Four Spartan quarterbacks combine to account for 428 passing yards and five scores.

April 23, 2005

EAST LANSING, Mich. - Michigan State third-year head football coach John L. Smith sent his team through a 100-play "controlled" scrimmage on Friday, April 22 to conclude the fourth and final week of spring practice. With temperatures in the low-40s and damp field conditions in Spartan Stadium, Coach Smith elected to conduct the 15th spring workout indoors in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building.

The offense scored on 10 of its 20 possessions, thanks largely to its big-play passing game. Four Spartan quarterbacks combined to account for 428 passing yards and five scores.

Michigan State's defense also produced its share of big plays during the 90-minute scrimmage, forcing three turnovers including a 30-yard fumble return by defensive end Michael Bazemore (6-3, 263, Sr.) that resulted in a touchdown.

"I really liked the way the players came out and competed," Smith said. "The offense got off to a fast start, scoring on five of its first seven possessions, but the defense showed some heart by coming up with stops on four-straight possessions. The players brought a lot of intensity and emotion to the field. I'm optimistic because I saw enough good things on both sides of the football.

Quarterback Drew Stanton (6-3, 228, Jr.), who played just 11 snaps with the first-team offense, directed two scoring drives. Stanton completed 4-of-5 passes for 61 yards and one score.

His 26-yard completion to Jerramy Scott (5-10, 185, Jr.) set up a first-and-10 at the Green 34. Six plays later, placekicker John Goss (6-3, 214, R-Jr.) finished off the nine-play, 38-yard drive with a 39-yard field goal.

The first-team offense also produced points on its second possession. On the opening play of the drive from the White 40, Jason Teague (5-9, 199, Sr.) ripped off a 26-yard run around left end. Two plays later, Stanton rolled left and fired a 27-yard TD strike to Scott.

"We definitely grew as an offense this spring," Stanton said. "We focused on crisp execution and consistent productivity. As an offensive unit, we're excited about the upcoming season because we're all on the same page. Although

THE NICKNAME

In 1926, Michigan State's first southern baseball training tour provided the setting for the birth of the "Spartan" nickname.

It all came about when a Lansing sportswriter imposed the silent treatment on a contest-winning nickname and substituted his own choice, the name that has lasted through the years.

In 1925, Michigan State College replaced the name Michigan Agricultural College. The college sponsored a contest to select a nickname to replace "Aggies" and picked "The Michigan Staters."

George S. Alderton, then sports editor of the Lansing State Journal, decided the name was too cumbersome for newspaper writing and vowed to find a better one. Alderton contacted Jim Hasselman of Information Services to see if entries still remained from the contest. When informed that they still existed, Alderton ran across the entry name of "Spartans" and then decided that was the choice. Unfortunately, Alderton forgot to write down who submitted that particular entry, so that part of the story remains a mystery.

Rewriting game accounts supplied by Perry Fremont, a catcher on the squad, Alderton first used the name sparingly and then ventured into the headlines with it. (Incidentally, after two days of spelling the name incorrectly with an "o", Mr. Alderton changed it to Spartan on a tip from a close friend.) Dale Stafford, a sports writer for the Lansing Capitol News, a rival of the State Journal, picked up the name for his paper after a couple of days. Alderton called Stafford and suggested that he might want to join the Spartan parade and he did.

As Mr. Alderton explains: "No student, alumnus or college official had called up the editor to complain about our audacity in giving the old school a new name, so we ventured into headlines with it. Happily for the experiment, the name took. It began appearing in other newspapers and when the student publication used it, that clinched it."

SPARTY

"The Spartan" statue, designed and produced by MSU assistant art professor Leonard D. Jungwirth, has a new permanent home inside the atrium of the Spartan Stadium tower. The 9-foot-7 ceramic figure weighs approximately 6,600 pounds, including its base. The sculpture has been relocated to protect it from the elements.

"The Spartan" was dedicated on June 9, 1945, at the intersection of Red Cedar Road, Kalamazoo Street and Chestnut Road. Popularly known as "Sparty," the statue remains one of the favorite photo subjects of campus visitors.

This fall, an exact replica of the original terra cotta sculpture – now cast in bronze – takes up residency on the plaza located at the north end of Demonstration Hall Field. The molds for the bronze statue were made from the original sculpture. The new statue was cast in bronze at the Artworks Foundry in Berkeley, Calif.

As part of MSU's sesquicentennial celebration, a dedication ceremony for the bronze "Sparty" is scheduled for Oct. 8, 2005.

Donors have contributed approximately $500,000 to pay for all work related to the new sculpture, including the plaza.

GREEN & WHITE

Details are sketchy as to when Michigan State athletic teams officially began using the school colors green and white. But records of the Athletic Association of the then Michigan Agricultural College show that on April 11, 1899, the organization took steps toward adoption of a green monogram, "to be worn only by athletes who subsequently take part in intercollegiate events."

It is generally thought the colors came into wide use with the arrival in 1903 of Chester L. Brewer as the school's first full-time director of athletics. Brewer also coached the Spartan football, basketball, baseball and track teams, the only varsity units in existence at the time.

SPARTY MASCOT

Michigan State's beloved mascot Sparty has won back-to-back national championships at the Universal Cheer Association's competition at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Fla. In January 2004, Sparty became the first Big Ten mascot to claim the national title, and in January 2005, Sparty defended his national championship, beating Goldy Gopher and Bucky Badger in the finals.

In April 1998, Sparty was selected the "Buffest Mascot on Campus" by Muscle & Fitness.

Made of hi-tech materials, including a vinyl chest plate and fiberglass molds like the ones used for making Muppets, the seven-foot costume weighs in at 40 pounds, allowing enough flexibility for playful gestures and animation. Sparty is a far cry from the many papier-mache heads that have popped up since the 1950's, mostly from fraternity efforts. The first official one apparently debuted in 1955 courtesy of Theta Xi.

Other versions were introduced from time to time. In 1984, Sigma Phi Epsilon introduced the first "gruff" head--sporting the unshaven look that still adorns many sweatshirts and jackets.

By contrast, the current Sparty costume is a state-of-the-art, full-bodied uniform that costs $12,000.

Today six students--their identities kept private--take turns being Sparty with one of three costumes. Because of the costume size, Sparty aspirants must be between 5-10 and 6-2 in height. Candidates who fit the physical needs are chosen after a hands-on process that includes tryouts and interviews.

The Sparty Mascot Program is run and funded by the Student Alumni Foundation.

Those interested in hiring Sparty can submit a request online at www.msusaf.com and click on the mascot program or contact the SAF office at 517.355.4458. Those who wish to donate to the Sparty mascot fund can contact University Development at 517.355.8257.

MSU FIGHT SONG

On the banks of the Red Cedar,
There's a school that's known to all;
Its specialty is winning,
And those Spartans play good ball;
Spartan teams are never beaten,
All through the game they'll fight;
Fight for the only colors,

Go right through for MSU,
Watch the points keep growing.
Spartan teams are bound to win,
They're fighting with a vim.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
See their team is weakening,
We're going to win this game.
Fight! Fight! Rah! Team, Fight!
Victory for MSU.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Currently in its eighth year, the Bowl Championship Series determines the National Champion. Last season, Southern California defeated Oklahoma, 55-19, in the FedEx Orange Bowl, to claim the National Championship.

The BCS consists of the Rose Bowl, Nokia Sugar Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern Conferences.

The Bowl Championship Series guarantees a matchup between college football's top two teams in a true national championship game.

Any Division I-A independent team or champion of any other Division I-A conference which is ranked sixth or higher in the BCS standings, will also be eligible for the Bowl Championship Series. A team that finishes as a runner-up to the conference champion in one of the BCS conferences and is ranked 3 or 4 in the final BCS rankings will automatically be selected to participate in a BCS bowl game.

Otherwise, any Division I-A team can qualify for selection in the BCS if they have won at least 9 college football games during the most recently concluded regular season excluding victories in exempted games, and are ranked among the Top 12 teams in the BCS final regular-season standings.

At the conclusion of the 2005 regular season, the Rose Bowl will host the National Championship contest. The game will be played on Jan. 4 at 8 p.m. ET in Pasadena, Calif. The Rose Bowl shall select the top two teams ranked in the BCS final regular-season standings.

The BCS will use regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC or Big East champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

Other BCS bowl games at the conclusion of the 2005 regular season include the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 2 at 5 p.m. ET, the Nokia Sugar Bowl on Jan. 2 at 8:30 p.m. ET and the FedEx Orange Bowl on Jan. 3 at 8 p.m. ET.

ABC-TV has the broadcast rights to each of the four BCS bowl games.

Starting after the 2006 regular season through 2009, the BCS will add an additional game for the national championship and will also provide two additional berths for post-season competition. FOX Sports will have the broadcast rights to three of the four BCS bowls and three national championship games during the next four years.
